Women's Institute holds February meeting

By BETTY SOJKA
Mrs. Grace McEnery, Public Relations Officer for the Women's Institute gives the following report of their recent dessert afternoon meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ernie McEnery. After food and a social chat the meeting was called to order by President Mrs. Jamieson. Eleven members answered the roll call by naming the leader of another country.

The minutes of the January meeting were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Ada Kirkwood who reminded members of many activities coming in the future. The Educational Committee of the area workshop will be held in Fergus on Feb. 23rd.

A workshop for program coordinator Doreen Burt and P.R.O. Grace McEnery will be held at Barrie Mill on April 28th. The theme for this meeting was International, and was convened by Mrs. T. Given. Current events were read by Mrs. E. McEnery. The motto on a very timely subject "World affairs are our affairs," was given by Mrs. Grace McEnery. She also gave some interesting facts on the life of St. Valentine going back to the year 200.

In the correspondence there were "thank-you" notes for Christmas baskets and several donations were received. A number of items were brought to the members notice in a letter from Provincial President Peggy Knapp, including that W.I. members should expect many changes as government grants will be removed. This will affect many W.I. activities. Some interesting committee reports were given.

For agriculture Mrs. Brown talked about the implement show and some new energy efficient farm implements. Mrs. Koopdradd spoke of the world being so well developed, than asked how there should be 4 million Canadians below the poverty line. More and more taxes but more and more cutbacks in our standard of living. Mrs. Given read from a family history about the hardships of a family in 1862 moved from Georgetown to the underdeveloped Bruce Peninsula, and what life was like for these children then. Members found it very interesting to look back on local history. At this meeting the amount for the yearly membership fee was set. After taking collections the meeting adjourned.

A smashing success was the only way to describe last Saturday's Jim Dandies Dance. A huge crowd was able to get to the Community Centre before foul weather set in. Bruno Carmelos is wished extra thanks because with the large crowd he was kept hopping as bartender. There was oodles and oodles of food with the pot luck menu. The dance floor never stayed empty. Many thanks to all who supported the Jim Dandies Dance by attending.
