

International darts champion gives clinic to locals

Halton League singles championship was held at the McGibbon and went very well. There were more players who did not play than played. Approximately one third of the total registration showed and some good darts flowed nevertheless.

Stan Rhynold came through the round robin and knockout sections to win the title over Erwin See. The players defeated Brian Ward and Pete Pickering. The tourney was divided into eight sections with the winners going through to the quarter finals.

The other four qualifiers were Ron Scarlett, Russ Hillier, Jeff Henderson and Mike Sinnaeve. Some new names there in the last stages of competition. Scarlett closed 164 and Rhynold scored 180 and there were several other scores for extra points.

Rhynold leads the individual standings and entered the tourney as form favorite. No. 2, Paul Kirby, was in evidence as were no. 4 Pete Pickering, no. 5 Mike Pepper, no. 5 equal Erwin See and no. 10 Ron Scarlett.

Continuing in chronological order, Wednesday at the Legion carried on with the league format returning to nine games. High Rollers defeated Bulldogs in rather easy fashion. Terry Hancock had two starts, three finishes and 140 in this match, Don Eady starring for 'Dogs.

Ensigns Al Murphy had five opens and Russ Deigle two high scores to no avail as the team dropped the decision to Westenders. Dennis Thorogood opened 112 and Ray Ackroyd closed 122 with Brian Hicks closing 104.

Second place Gasketman Cutters won over Steeprock comfortably with Randy Hunt in form. 102 start of three and a finish was supported by Stan Rhynold's 140. Paul Kirby replied with 40 and four starts, and, oh yes, Hunt also scored 125.

Panthers lost to Snowjacks Hustlers, with one set in controversial fashion. Panthers changed their line-up after posting. Jim Carter opened 92 in one of his four starts, Henry Graham going 2-2 in support. Ron Scarlett had a big match, four starts, one of 103 and two closes, one of 105.

Second division leaders, Acadian Pools, returned to winning ways over Bandits. Bandits 'Brain' Turner and George Powell each opened three. Bruce Stevens opened six and closed three and Mike Finn scored 140.

Intercounty took Outlaws with Bill McCartney in fine form. Todd Axford and Daviv Janiec played well for Outlaws. Taxmen narrowly defeated Independents with steady showing from Roger Moore, Cam Lavers and Paul Karolidis.

Dave Tomlinson opened three and closed one, with Hal Hills also opening three, as Aces recorded a win over Firemen. Rob Quinton began four and Ace Bailey scored 133 in the lost cause.

Snowjacks Hustlers and Acadian Pools lead the Industrial standings and George no. 2 continues to lead the Halton league.

Paul Kirby, McGibbon, Steeprock and Ancient Mariners won the Town shootout to play Eric Bristow, world renowned pro darts champion of several titles. On Saturday Kirby played well to score with the great one and came close to winning one game, just failing to close out on 32.

Bristow played three out of five against 16 players, and one game of 1001 against organizer and Provincially ranked Rod Leech, of Acton, winning all matches. Bristow displayed a very pleasant personality and allowed opponents to look good without himself looking bad.

Bristow tried so many times to close 170, the maximum close out, to please all the fans and came close a few times.

Morgan Vaters lost 2-3, Bob Richardson, Ed Lewis and Steve Cochran lost 1-3 and all for players shot 180. Bristow had four 180s himself. He also took the microphone and answered all questions thrown at him by the well-fired and entertained audience, ducking none.

The legion tourney went well for locals. Ron Scarlett/Beau Beaumont won the doubles title over the MacDonald brothers from Brampton with Gary Rodda/Ian McDonald third equal. Gary Rodda lost in the final of the singles to Brian Cummings, Cooksville and all the aforementioned players will make the next stage.

Next Saturday the players will be joined again in Acton Legion, by Ged Williams, Eric Fuller, Dennis Thorogood, Rod Beaumont, Dan Fraser, Bruce Hope, Brian Hicks and self in the four player teams section of the first round.

Finally, the Halton League youth section is well underway, although in small numbers. The 'kids' play mixed open doubles, singles and teams for individual points and a 'little something' at the end of the season.

There is no fee for playing and the group meet at O'Tooles each Sunday at 1 p.m. for two hours play. The ages range from 12 to 16 and players are still welcomed by Terry Hancock and Dave Scutt, the leaders.
