

Minor Peewee Halton loses playoff opener

On Sunday evening, Halton Minor Peewees began their post-season play with a 2-1 loss in the opener of their best-of-five game semi-final series against Burlington.

Hurricanes had won the regular season with a 3-2-1 record against Burlington. The two losses came early, followed by three straight victories and a 4-4 tie in their last meeting Jan. 24.

Burlington took advantage of their AA affiliation, adding three skaters to their line-up for the opener.

The strategy paid off handsomely in the dying minutes of the game when Halton enjoyed a power play for the last 4:45 and were unable to penetrate the relentless Burlington forecheckers.

Burlington worked their plan well, scoring the game's first goal at 8:52 of the opening period and then using their long bench to shut down the Hurricanes offense.

It was not until 11:20 of the third that Doug Janjevich, on a nice set-up from Darin Finlayson and Jamie Walker, found himself uncovered just long enough to put a 20-footer through the pads of the Burlington netminder and tie the game at one.

The biggest save of the game came at 8:25 of the third when Burlington was awarded a penalty shot while on a powerplay.

Halton's Jeff Langille was equal to the challenge, holding his ground just long enough to get his big trapper in front of a ten-footer and deflecting the puck harmlessly into the corner of the rink.

Hurricanes were unable to kill off the remaining 1:42 of the powerplay and at 7:51 Burlington scored what turned out to be the winner.

Halton were given a golden opportunity late in the game to make a comeback when Burlington were assessed three minor penalties and played all but six seconds of the last 4:45 short-handed, including a 47 second span when they were two men short.

The second game was played yesterday but results were unavailable.

Milton Heights Ski Club Local places fourth

Limehouse resident Tim Shier, a member of the Milton Heights Ski Club, placed fourth in the division two championship at the Toronto Ski Club on Sunday.

Shier, racing in the giant slalom, followed fellow member Jason Penman in the standings, as Penman placed third in the championship. On Saturday at Craigleith, Josh Douglas from Oakville placed eighth, while Mark Hooper from Burlington placed 35th in the giant slalom for the Safrata Cup.

The club is winding up its season with a family fun race on March 3, with racing beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Tyke house league Clothing ties Cookies

Terra Cotta Cookies had their winning streak broken on Saturday when J.V. Clothing tied them 4-4 in Tyke house league play at Memorial Arena.

Douglas Martin led the way for the Clothing squad, scoring two goals. Michel Lefebvre and Ryan Bisschop each scored once, while Dean Spittal, Gavin Aldridge and Kevin Wagner had assists.

Terra Cotta's Chad Fleming notched a hat trick, while Daniel Walinga had the single. Jason Forbes, Joel Hamilton, Graham Jones, Andrew Oesch and Andrew Burns recorded assists.

Eagle Landscaping edged McFarlane Masonry 7-6 on the strength of a hat trick from Matthew Seaman and Jeff Dawe's goal with six seconds remaining.

Teammates Daniel Kooy, Ryan Norton and Eric Cartwright each had single goals.

Assisting for Eagles were Marcus Sargent, Bradley Norton, Kyle Taylor, Gregory Brown and Sean McNally.

McFarlane's goals were scored by Matthew Terry (2), Matthew Gerts, Michael Cook, Ryan Louth and Jordan Scuralli. Assisting were Matthew Tales, Brandon

Pearce, Ryan White and Derek Naylor.

Armstrong Insurance came out on top of Montego Construction 5-3, aided by strong goaltending from Jason Hunt.

Thomas Temple netted two for Armstrong, followed by Matthew Fielding, Vincent Burke and Sean Duffy. Assisting were Ted Morris, Jeff Boyce, Brian Arnold, Adam Arnold, Billy MacDonald, Jordan Armstrong and Ryan Humberstonge.

Daniel Roffel scored twice and Sean Reynolds got one for Montego, assisted by Steve Cogan and Brent Beaumont. This wasn't enough as they came up two goals short.
