Sick Chairman's Report

A conversation with Jeanette Allen confirmed that Harry's condition is not much improved since we had last talked to her. He is still in Toronto Western, but there is a possibility that he could be moved to Credit Valley Hospital. This of course would be more convenient for the family regarding visitations.

This writer, and I'm sure all members, are hopeful that Harry does recover soon. Our thoughts and prayers are with Harry and the family.

Charles F. Tutty,
Sick Chairman Branch 120

Milne, helped customers size the abundance of clothing available at the sale. The Ladies Auxiliary raised close to $500 for Branch 120. Items not purchased were donated to the Love and Christ Food Bank. (Herald photo)
