Midget 'AA'

Sunny Acres Farms tied in playoffs

Georgetown's Sunny Acre Midgets are tied at two points each with East Gwillimbury in their six point Ontario Minor Hockey Association Championship quarter finals.

After a commanding 9-4 victory at home, Georgetown lost 4-3 in East Gwillimbury.

Dustin Thompson led the way for Sunny Acres in the first game with three goals and one assist, followed by Greg Dobbin with four assists, Shawn Pearson with three assists, and Tim Presswood with two goals and one assist.

Sunday's game in East Gwillimbury saw Georgetown down two goals early in the game. Tim Presswood's goal with 47 seconds left in the first period and Shawn Pearson's goal got Georgetown back into the game, only to have East Gwillimbury score the winning goal with four minutes left in the second period.

Georgetown had plenty of opportunities in the third, but strong goaltending by the home team allowed East Gwillimbury to tie the series at one game each.

Game three will be played Thursday at 9:00 p.m. in East Gwillimbury and game four takes place at the Alcott Arena on March 2 at 7:00 p.m.
