How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers of the Classifieds will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

NOTICE

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error. The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its employees or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the limit paid for such advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement.

IN MEMORIAM

GUEST, Roy - In loving memory of a dear father and grandpa who passed away February 28, 1989.

Family ties are treasured things Woven through the years... Of memories of togetherness Of laughter, love and fears.

Family ties are treasured things Forged in bygone days By love of parents deep and true And sweet familiar ways.

Family ties are treasured things And though we may be apart The tender bonds with those we love Will forever live in our heart.

Deeply missed by your son Douglas, daughter-in-law Terrylyn and your granddaughters Tori and Julie.

HENDERSON, Bert - In memory of a dear father who passed away Feb. 26, 1990.

We watched you suffer We watched you sigh But all we could do was just stand by. When the time came we suffered too For you never deserved what you went through. God took your hand We had to part, He eased your pain, But broke our hearts.

Always remembered, Keith and Lynnette Henderson.

GUEST, Roy - In memory of a dear father and husband who passed away on February 28, 1989.

There will always be a heartache And always a silent tear But always precious memories Of the days when you were here. We hold you close within our hearts Until we meet again.

Always loved and sadly missed Wife Orlo and Family.

In memory of Roy A Guest.

Two long years since we said goodbye, Two years of sadness, sometimes we cry, Our emotions are mixed, We wonder why But in our hearts you'll never die.

Judy, Gary and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

GUEST, Roy - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather who passed away on February 28, 1989.

We wish you were here with us, Dad. To watch us and our children grow, Someone else for our children to love, And to have a Grandfather to know, To help us with our failures, A sympathetic shoulder to cry on, To see all our accomplishments, A Dad, to love and cheer us on.

Sadly missed and forever loved, Dave, Kim, Derek, Diana and Christie.

CARD OF THANKS

CAREY - We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our many friends and relatives for the floral tributes, donations and cards expressing sympathy in the loss of a dear father and grandfather, Clarence George Carey. A special thanks to Rev. Peter Barrow for his support and comforting words, also the Georgetown volunteer firemen who acted as pallbearers. Thank you to the Ford family and friends for the nice lunch following the service. Also J. S. Jones and Son Funeral Home for their help and kindness. William and Mary Carey and Family.

The Grieveson family would like to thank our many friends for their outpouring of love and support during the recent loss of our father, George.

We are especially appreciative of all the passersby who immediately stopped to offer assistance when Dad suffered his fatal heart attack. Their unselfish and tireless efforts demonstrated again what our father always maintained, "It is the people of Georgetown, that make this a special place to live".
