How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers of the Classifieds will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

NOTICE

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error. The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its employees or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the limit paid for such advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement.

CARD OF THANKS

The Grieveson family would like to thank our many friends for their outpouring of love and support during the recent loss of our father, George. We are especially appreciative of all the passersby who immediately stopped to offer assistance when Dad suffered his fatal heart attack. Their unselfish and tireless efforts demonstrated again what our father always maintained, "It is the people of Georgetown, that make this a special place to live".

ROCKEL-DAWSON. The family of the late Brenda Rockel wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to relatives, friends and neighbors for their cards, flowers and donations. The support of all of you certainly helped ease our sorrow, likewise the response from fellow workers, church and sporting organizations in Milton, Georgetown and Toronto was heartwarming and we were touched by your kindness. A special thanks to Rev. Mark McDermott, the ladies of Grace Anglican Church and J. Scott Early Funeral Home. A sincere thank you to all, Ida, Derek and Jack.
