

Thorogood takes Industrial League's singles title

By ALEX TOUGH

The Industrial League's singles champion for 1990/91 is Dennis Thorogood. In defeating Jeff Richardson in the final it was a case of the old bull winning over the young bull. Both players brought their form to the fore on the night.

The consolation final was won by Hunter Carroll over Dan Abercrombie in the quiet of the late evening at the Legion. Most players left as they dropped decisions, due to the snow storm.

Bryan Turner, Jim Charter, Mark See, Al Murphy and Roy Rudiger were the champion sawn-off contestants. The runner up disposed of Jim Fisher, Dan Abercrombie, Dave Tomlinson, Rod Beaumont and Beau Beaumont.

Thorogood scored 180, Carroll started 148, 142 and 104. Abercrombie opened 112 and George Powell 102. Joe Cairns closed 106 and 115 against Bruce Hope. Barry Sproule began 108 and that's about it for highlights.

In league play, Snowjacks Hustlers lead the Gasketman Cutters by eight points in the first division. The teams play the two bottom teams this Wednesday and the results could be crucial to the run in. In the second division, Acadian Pools lead Aces by 13 points, which is reasonable comfortable.

Monday night, leaders George no. 2 feel McGibbon no. 1 breathing down their neck with some 16 points splitting the teams. However, the main news and excitement of the week was nothing to do with the top teams. Rather the opposite.

Bottom team, McGibbon no. 2 - the ladies - won their first ever match in the history of the Halton League. The girls defeated Exchange no. 2 8-6 in a memorial night.

Sublime, sublime, happens sometimes and the girls won both teams fours for the match. Darrell Weir scored 135 and won his doubles without partner. Greg Lawr, Sean McQuarrie and Andrea Clifford also scored high.

Meanwhile, McGibbon no. 1, at home, took Hollywood by the maximum 14 points. Stan Rhynold continues to shine and finished the maximum finish, 170, a near impossible feat. He also scored 140 as did Bruce Hope and Jeff Richardson.

Exchange no. 1 lost 4-10 to George no. 2. Ed Paterson, Bruce Stevens and Bill Taylor scored 140 and Paul Sargent came in with 135. George no. 3 faced the might of O'Tooles no. 2 and only managed one point. This came in singles from Dan Hall who won over Jim Charter.

Jeff Henderson and Pete Pickering scored three 140s with Terry Hancock and Ken Baker scoring a single 140. Ted Nelson scored 139. Jeff Henderson completed a big match with 180.

Ged Williams (2), Shirley Penfold (2), Brian Hicks and Hugh Smid each fired 140; Mark See 135, Erwin See 130 in the clash between George no. 2 and O'Tooles no. 3. George no. 2 won by 10-4 to keep their nose in front of the standings.

Time Out were also big winners, dropping only one point, a singles to Paul Goudie. Larry Varey closed 110 and scored 135 with John Colter firing two 140s. The opposition were Copper Kettle no. 2. Kettle no. 1 lost all 14 points to O'Tooles no. 1. High scores came from Mike Pepper, Brian Walton and Wayne Eagles.

The youth section picked up another player in Tommy Allen; his debut was not too auspicious in points winning, however his presence was welcome. Good to have another member on Sunday afternoon at O'Tooles from 1:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Major Novice

Lumbermen drop three at Preston tournament

Georgetown Beaver Lumber "AA" Major Novice hockey club participated in the 31st Annual Preston Gambles Oldtimers International Novice Hockey Tournament Feb. 23 and 24 in Preston finishing with a 0-3 record.

The first game found the Lumbermen defeated 2-0 by M.T.D. Products of Kitchener. The second game was won 6-3 by Stratford Avon Park Ford hockey club.

The first Georgetown goal was scored by Scott Ellis on a scramble play, assisted by Ryan Bobor and Matt Hotham. Now trailing 5-1, Ryan Bobor skated hard to break up a Stratford offensive play and then went on an end to end rush to score on a shot high on the glove side to bring the score to 5-2.

Dan Smith added the final Lumberman tally to bring the game to its conclusion at 6-3 in Stratford's favor.

The game was won 4-0 by Waterloo Warrick-Connestoga Rovers. Ryan Carter played solid goal for Georgetown for a period and a half.

Tyler Pearce tried in vain to hold the fort but came up short. Notable Georgetown contributors included Jamie Larocque, Derrick Elliot, Roddy Heinz, Jay Campbell, Trevor Cash, Joshua Travels and Jay Hayes.

Jay Campbell, captain of the Lumbermen, was selected to the all star team and contributed two assists in an 8-2 winning effort.
