

Kinsmen draw winners

Halton Regional Police and Crime Stoppers of Halton are requesting information that will lead to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for inflicting approximately $10,000.00 damage to "The Bubble Tennis Club" located at 4346 Longmoor Drive in Burlington, Ontario.

On the 21st of February, 1991, between 11:10 and 11:15 p.m., person(s) unknown caused $5,000.00 damage to the outer shell of the Bubble Tennis Club. An extremely sharp instrument was used to inflict the damage. The culprit slashed the bubble along the west and south sides of the club and fled the scene.

A further $5,000.00 damage was caused to the interior of the club when the bubble collapsed on top of light standards and equipment inside the club.

This is the second incident of vandalism within a two week period at The Bubble Tennis Club. Approximately two weeks

Sentencing delayed

The sentencing of Brian Boudreau, who pleaded guilty to abducting his five-year-old son in January, has been delayed until March 18.

Boudreau, 35, was to be sentenced Wednesday in Milton Provincial Court for abduction and breach of probation, which he also pleaded guilty to, in connection with last spring's disappearance of Luke Boudreau.

What began as a regular visit between Mr. Boudreau and his son turned into an intensive investigation by Halton Regional Police when Luke disappeared.

Through the investigation and an outpouring of community support for Luke's mother, Janet Cipryk of Milton, the pair were found by authorities in Hawaii last October.

Mr. Boudreau was also charged with extortion and conspiracy to commit an indictable offence but those charges were withdrawn.

Nominations being sought for Ontario award

The Honours and Awards Secretariat of the Province of Ontario is seeking nominators for the 1991 Ontario Medal For Good Citizenship.

The Ontario Government established the Ontario Medal For Good Citizenship in 1973 to recognize and pay tribute to those citizens who make this Province a better place to live through their selflessness, humanity and kindness.

Just who are some of these citizens? They are the men and women who care about the plight of the poor; the loneliness of the elderly; the frustrations of the physically and developmentally disabled; the needs of the sick. In short, they are people who quietly go about helping the less-advantaged members of our society.

Any Ontario resident may be nominated for the award. Nominations will be evaluated by the Ontario Medal For Good Citizenship Advisory Council and awards will be conferred by the Lieutenant Governor, the Honourable Lincoln Alexander.

The deadline for nominations is April 15, 1991. Nomination forms are available at constituency offices of all members of the Provincial Parliament or from:
