Old-fashioned square dance

Several Georgetown families got together to enjoy some old time square dancing at St. John's United Church on Saturday night. The evening wasn't just for old hands at square dancing either, with many people learning the moves for the first time. (Herald photo)

Doors sound track available

Within a few days, Elektra is releasing the soundtrack to director Oliver Stone's new movie, The Doors. The movie chronicles the controversial career of the legendary rock group.

The 14-song soundtrack includes 12 songs by The Doors, including Riders On The Storm, When The Music's Over and the

Jazz concert

The tenth of ten concerts the 1990/91 Rothmans, Benson and Hedges Inc. Sound of Toronto Jazz concert series will be held on Monday, March 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Ontario Science Centre, and will feature The Doug Watson Quartet.

Doug graduated from the University of Toronto with a Bachelor of Music degree in composition. He has composed much of the material for the quartet as well as music for film, including four film scores. The quartet has appeared at many Toronto jazz venues including George's, Meyers Deli, Clinton's, Sneaky Dee's, and the duMaurier Downtown Jazz Festival.

Doug has also performed outside the group with the Ed Bickert Quartet, Time Warp, Dr. McJazz, and the Herbie Spanier Quartet.

The quartet consists of: Doug Watson, soprano and tenor saxophones; Rod Campbell, guitar; Peter Telford, bass; and Norman Marshall Villeneuve, drums.

Recorded for later broadcast, this concert will be presented on CJRT-FM by Ted O'Reilly, (producer/host of the series) on Saturday, March 16, at 7:00 p.m. on THE JAZZ SCENE. This broadcast is made possible by a grant from the Province of Ontario through the Ontario Arts Council.

seven-minute unedited version of Light My Fire. The other two songs are Heroin, by the Velvet Underground, and an excerpt from Carmina Burana, performed by the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra and Chorus.

One of the songs on the soundtrack, Break On Through, will be released as a video in March.

The Tragically Hip, the Canadian rock band that won four CASBY awards last year and is gaining recognition in the U.S., has released a new album, Road Apples.

The Tragically Hip (the name came from Michael Nesmith's Elephant Parts video) has honed its live performances to a vibrant pitch. The Chicago Sun-Times recently named the group's July 1990 performance at Cabaret Metro as one of the five best concerts of 1990.

The new album (MCA Records) includes such tracks as On The Verge, Fight and Three Pistols, all of which The Tragically Hip has been featuring on its tours.

A restitched Material World returns to CBC-TV on March 11.

All the regulars from this Gemini Award-winning show are back for a second season, but the format has been overhauled.

Much more emphasis is being placed on character development, particularly that of the main character, Kitty Reeves (Laura Bruneau).

"Our new approach is to really get inside the head of ... Kitty. She is our guide and the show is her diary," said Jane Ford, one of the show's producers.

Starting March 11, Material World airs Mondays at 9 p.m.
