Georgetown Racquet Club teams qualify for league playoffs

The Georgetown Racquet Club has two teams entered in playoff competition after the long winter season. The ladies D inter-club team and the junior mixed under 19 squads advanced, while the men's B inter-club team fell short of qualifying.
 The men's B team played 11 matches over the season, that ran from October to March. GRC won six and lost five matches, a record good enough for a third place finish in the standings. Only the first two teams advance to the playoffs.

 Their last match was the most notable in that they upset the top ranked team, Regency Racquets Club, from Brampton. Team members were Wayne Pakkala, Melanie Jans, Paul Strandberg, Allan Kogon, Murray Jans, Boyd Hoccinott and Keith Smith.

 The ladies D team has managed to attain one of the four playoff spots in the West section of the eight-team league. Team members are Audrey Jans, Sandy Lewis, Kristy Lewis, Myra Britton, Marg Hertz, Janet Schandelmeier and Gloria Sinclair.

The junior team has finished the regular season in first place. Melanie Jans, Keith Smith, Owen Jones, Brad Amato, Kristy Lewis, Kristy Johnson, Jamie Kelman, Greg Sinclair, Vineet Mitera, Henry Anderson, and Greg Sinclair all contributed to the team effort.
 Finals will be held on March 18 when the GRC squad will meet a strong contingent from Pine Valley Racquet Club. The four member Georgetown team in the finals will be Melanie Jans, Keith Smith, Owen Jones and Brad Amato.

The Pine Valley Open Tournament, held March 8-10, at the North York Club, featured A and B divisions for both men and women. Melanie Jans won the ladies A division by defeating Lynne Miller in the final, 3-0.

Major Peewees struggle in Tri-County playoffs

After defeating Streetsville 6-5 on their home ice last month, Bodanis Bruins Major Peewee hockey team met stiff competition in recent tri-county playoff action.
 Ancaster travelled to Alcott Arena on Feb. 24 and fought the local club to a 1-1 draw. Both clubs were scoreless for the first two periods of action although Georgetown completely controlled the game, outshooting them 39-10.
 Ancaster assumed a 1-0 lead at the nine minute mark of the third period, but Georgetown was able to tie the score at 1-1 when captain Kevin Lumb made a solo rush from his end and scored with

 Bruins then travelled to Flamboro last week where they met a more aggressive opponent. Flamboro held a 5-0 lead late into the third period before David Boere put Georgetown on the scoreboard at the 5:36 mark on a goal assisted by Scott Lahey and Fraser Thom.
 Georgetown completes tri-county playdown activity after the Spring Break when they play Oakville on March 21, Chinguacousy on March 23 and finish the season with Brampton at Alcott on March 24. Should they be successful in these games they will play an undetermined opponent for the championship.
