

Harden qualifies for Ontario Darts Championships

Rick Harden qualified for the Ontario Darts Championships with a very creditable third place at the final district shoots recently. Harden performed well to reach the last stages, with some good opposition left behind, including Mike Sweeney. Harden is one of the up and coming younger breed of local esteem.

The Hollywood Tavern is hosting a blind draw doubles tourney every Sunday afternoon, according to Susan Conway. The session registers at noon for a cost of $2.00 per entrant with the Hollywood 'doubling' the pot, so to speak. Could be a pleasant, enjoyable tourney for an hour or two.

Not forgetting the Halton league youth darts at O'Tooles from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. free. The oldest youth player is experienced and expected to be the top of the crop, and is Justin Penfold leads the way with Kyle Hancock and Richard Henderson tied for second. Another three players, Brad Friend, Tracie Henning and Nello Vianna recently joined up.

Halton league leaders, George no. 2, missed the monthly meeting and dropped three points as a result. However, the team still leads the division from McGibbon no. 1 and O'Tooles nos. 2 and 3. The lead over McGibbon is down to 11 points. The run in to the finish is tightening up all round. In spite of McGibbon ladies recent win, the girls remain at the foot of the table.

Copper Kettle no. 1 defeated no. 2 last week, with both teams fielding 'dummies'. Wayne Eagles was the only extra points scorer with 140. Exchange no. 1 showed well against McGibbon no. 1 in losing by two teams sets, singles and doubles being tied.

Nice to see 'the voice' Greg Thomas, scoring 180 as did Stan Rhynold. High scores came from Rhynold (2), Hank Van Gogh, Bruce Hope, Dwayne Maltby, Mark Hewson and Bill Taylor. Exchange no. 2 also lost by two, this time to Hollywood, and again it was the teams which did the trick. Jon Brown (2), and Darrell Weir (2) were the only extras recorded. McGibbon no. 2 lost the lot to O'Tooles no. 3 for whom Chris Scutt notched three highs and Paul Kirby one. Andrea Clifford scored 140.

Time Out scored an away win at George no. 3 after tying the singles. Rob and Tony Marrows scored extra points with high scores. George no. 1 surprisingly won at O'Tooles, setting the standard with six singles. Pete Pickering closed 136 and scored 140. Terry Cesar (2), Dave Paterson, Ed Kouyoumjian, Jeff Henderson and Terry Hancock also scored high. Leaders, George no. 2, also won at O'Tooles, over Dr. Pepper's lads. Brian Ward closed 108 and Brian Hicks, Danny Drumm and Larry Hunt (2) each scored high.

On Wednesday at the Legion, Industrial League play continued. In the 1st division, Ensigns opened against Gasketman Cutters and went down 2-7 to the second place squad. Roy Rudiger opened five and, with Laurie Hopkins, scored high. For Cutters, an all round show with Randy Hunt opening 1-2, Jeff Richardson scored 180 to lead the way.

First place Snowjacks Hustlers took Bulldogs by the same score on the next board. Joe Cairns began four, one of 112. Rod Beaumont's first darts were an opening 103. Jay Bishop scored 140 and Tim Kasara scored 120 and 116. Panthers and Westenders played a nailbiter before Enders ran out winners by the odd game. All Gardner and Larry Hunt shot 100 as did Brian Hicks and Ray Ackroyd, Hicks also opening four. Steeprock moved up one spot with the win over High Rollers, who were short of players. Hugh Smid and Ian McDonald popped high scores of 122 and 121.

Outlaws have played well of late and defeated Taxmen handily. Todd Axford opened and closed four and scored 112, Cam Herman supported with 120 and Dave Janiec with 112. Other highs came from Paul Karolidis (140), Roger Moore and Graham Keating, 100 each. Firemen easily defeated Bandits with Rick Appleyard scoring 140, 116 and 101; Gord Inglis finished 78. Brian Turner opened three, George Powell and Art Cousens opened two each.

Aces lost their long standing second place to Inter County after their loss to the new top place challengers. Bill Hall, nevertheless, opened 156 and John Burke scored 120 with Lloyd Westlake opening three. Bill McCartney scored three highs and Ted Nelson one. Leaders Acadian Pools took Independents 8-1 in the final match. Bruce Stevens had three closes and three opens. Glen Monaghan also opened three. Tom Elliot and Jim Franks scored high and Gord Bottoms opened four.
