Br. 120, P.R.O.

As part of the Air Cadets of Canada's 50th Anniversary celebrations, The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 hosted the Air Cadet League of Canada Effective Speaking Contest on Sunday, March 17 in the Legion Hall.

Rod MacDonald, Central Region Chairman, introduced the Master of Ceremonies, Chris Miller, of the Halton Hills Toastmasters.

The judges for this event were Toastmasters Paul Puodzeinas, Don Rocca and Roger Roy, all of Halton Hills.

Present were Air Cadet Commanding Officer Captain John MacLean, Chairman Joe Poirier and Past Chairman Earl Haskins of 756 Squadron, the Georgetown Legion's Royal Canadian Air Cadets.

The contestants spoke on the following topics: Today's Air Force, Canadian Contributors to the Space Age and Famous Canadian Aviators.

Jean Narey, 1st Vice President Branch 120 presented the gold medal to WO Don Phillips of 132 Squadron, Brampton, Margaret Bromley, O.P.C. Director presented the silver medal to Sgt. Sara Manning of 734 Squadron, Alliston, and Marjorie Tutty P.R.O. Branch 120 presented the bronze medal to WO Nadine Thompson of 167 Squadron, Owen Sound.

The gold medal finalist WO Don Phillips will be competing in the provincial contest to be held in Toronto on April 27/91.

Sgt. Keith Shergold of 892 Squadron, Brampton, received a certificate of acknowledgement of participation in the 50th Anniversary Effective Speaking Contest.

Congratulations to all these young Canadians on the fine showing they made and to quote Chris Miller, the M.C., "There are no losers, only winners."

The Ladies Auxiliary of Branch 120 served a light luncheon after the presentations.

Glen Hafey Fishing Derby dates are June 23/91 and September 15/91. This is open to all members of Branch 120, their families and friends. Contact Doris Bouley at 877-4578 for further information on this fun day.
