

George and Dragon leads as darts season winds down

Time to concentrate on the leagues' standings for the next few, (and closing) weeks. The Halton League shows George and Dragon no. 2 atop the rest with no changes following, McGibbon no. 1, and O'Tooles no. 2 and 3 and Time Out.

The leaders have a 17 point advantage with four nights remaining. In the Industrial League, Snowjacks Hustlers lead Gasketman Cutters by eight points with three nights remaining.

Westenders and Steeprock are next and with only an outside chance of catching the front runners. The Halton youth section has Justin Penfold way ahead of Kyle Hancock and Richard Henderson in the unofficial table.

Halton's fifth place team Timeout were held to a tie by George no. 1 although faced with the 'dummy' and leading the singles 5-3. Ed Paterson, with dummy, won his doubles over Tony Marrows and Alison Colter. Rob Marrows, Larry Varey and Colin Hicks scored 140 and Terry Cesar shot 140 and 180. Fourth place O'Tooles no. 3 defeated Exchange no. 2 by four points with young Chris Scutt scoring 180, at last after threatening for so long. Paul Kirby (2) and Hugh Smid shot 140 and Gord Bottoms 132.

Third place O'Tooles no. 2 met second place McGibbon no. 1 and a close match took place, McGibbon taking two extra singles for the win. Gary Rodda, Hank Van Gogh, Randy Hunt, Dan Charles, Jeff Richardson, Hunter Carroll, Jeff Henderson, Terry Hancock and Pete Pickering each scored extra points for high scores (above 130).

The Industrial League welcomed back Harry Bottoms and Don Eady after recent illness and their respective teams, Ensigns and Bulldogs, fought their opposition all the way to the last set before losing by one - Snowjacks Hustlers and Gasketman Cutters being the winners and holding on to the top two places as a result. Second division Acadian Pools stay on top with Inter County some way behind. Both teams won 6-3. All the first divisions scores were 5-4.

Panthers took three middle sets to get their win over High Rollers. Derek Hedley opened four, Paul Kavanagh opened five and Hunter Carroll scored 140 and 125. Steeprock won the first set and each alternate set for the win over Westenders. Dennis Thorogood began five and Ian McDonald replied with four opens. Ray Ackroyd scored 140 and Paul Kirby 121.

Aces put up a struggle against the team above them, Acadian Pools, and lost. John Burke scored 140 and Lloyd Westlake opened four. Dan Fraser also began four and Tim Field had a start of 102. Inter County took the first three sets from Independents on their way to the win. Gord Bottoms started five and Jim Franks scored 140 with a 100 open. It takes place April 6 at the Georgetown District High School and is the single best occasion for individuals interested in a range of local activities to make contact with the groups providing the leisure or service opportunity.
