

Godsoe re-elected to post

Mississauga real estate broker A. Ross Godsoe was re-elected as a director-at-large of the Ontario Real Estate Association at its annual conference February 23.

In this capacity, he will represent the association's members on the board of directors and senior-level executive committee.

Mr. Godsoe is president of White Oaks Realty Limited of Mississauga, a firm involved in residential, industrial, commercial and investment real estate and property management. He has been involved in the real estate profession for 24 years.

A member and past president of the Mississauga Real Estate Board, Mr. Godsoe has served as an OREA regional director, a director-at-large and on the finance committee, MLS task force and executive committee. Most recently, he chaired the association's political affairs committee.

The Ontario Real Estate Association represents 50,000 brokers and salespeople, and 48 local real estate boards throughout the province. OREA provides all real estate licensing courses in Ontario, and members may use the trademark "Realtor", denoting real estate professionals who subscribe to high standards of ethics and service.

Caring for Our Resources

Every 1°C you turn down your thermostat saves about 5% on your energy bill.

Energy needed to heat an average new Canadian home (kWh per year)

- Wear an extra warm sweater and turn down the thermostat.
- Install a timer on the thermostat so your house is heated only when needed.
