Lumbermen tied for first in Tri-County playoffs

Georgetown Beaver Lumber Major Novices are tied for first in the Tri-County playoff standings after losing just one of their first five games.

Georgetown lost 2-1 to Flamborough Stewart Fuels at Carlisle Arena on St. Patrick's Day.

Flamborough scored a power play goal at the 6:58 mark with both Brent McClung and Matt Hotham off for tripping. The first period ended 1-0 for Flamborough.

Flamborough made it 2-0 in the second with another scramble goal at the 2:50 mark as the Lumbermen failed to clear the puck out of their own end. Dan Smith finally put the Georgetown team on the board with a forehand shot, low on the glove side to score assisted by Jay Hayes to bring the period to a close at 2-1.

The third period saw Georgetown try to even the game up but the score remained at 2-1 in Flamborough's favor.

Georgetown skated to a 2-1 victory over Oakville Rangers on March 18, giving them a tie with Oakville for first place in the play downs.

Matt Hotham scored from the slot at the 7:02 mark assisted by Dan Smith and Scott Ellis. The first period ended 1-0.

Oakville tied the game at 1-1 on a scramble goal while shorthanded. The second period ended 1-1.

Brent McClung scored for Georgetown in the third period with a goal high on the glove side from the top of the faceoff circle. This powerplay goal was assisted by Jay Campbell and Dan Smith.

Notable Georgetown contributors included Trevor Cash, Scott Ellis, Tomie Larocque, Ryan Bobor and Joshua Thovefs.

LIFESTYLES OF HALTON HILLS

It only happens every two years and it is all over in one day - but while it lasts, it is the most concentrated "trade show" for Community Groups, Organizations and Agencies in North Halton.

It takes place April 6 at the Georgetown District High School and is the single best occasion for individuals interested in a range of local activities to make contact with the groups providing the leisure or service opportunity.

If your organization has not yet reserved a booth, the "Lifestyles" Committee urges you to do so now.

For registration and information, call Linda or Joy at the Recreation and Parks Department at 873-2600.
