

Blue Fins excel at Alderwood

Halton Hills Blue Fins swimmers put in one of their best performances of the year at the Alderwood Invitational Swim Meet March 23-24, taking home five gold, five silver and nine bronze medals, as well as managing 14 personal best times and setting six new club records.

Alison Duby led the way for Blue Fins, placing first in 50 metre fly and 200 metre individual medley, setting a personal best time and a club record in the medley. Duby placed second in 50 metre freestyle and 100 metre backstroke, as well as third place finishes in 100 metre freestyle and 100 metre individual medley, again setting club and personal best times in the medley.

Neil Scudder set three club records at the meet, with a first place finish in 100 metre backstroke, second in 200 metre backstroke and third in 400 metre freestyle. Scudder had personal best times in all three, including his third place finish in 50 metre freestyle and fourth place finish in 100 metre freestyle.

Sabrina Bassett, a 13/14 year-old group swimmer, earned two first place finishes in 50 and 100 metre freestyle. Bassett also placed second in 200 metre freestyle and fourth in 100 metre backstroke.

Laurie-Anne Crocker also had a productive outing, placing second in 200 metre individual medley in the 11/12 year-old group and setting personal best records in 200 metre freestyle (third), 800 metre backstroke (fourth) and 100 metre backstroke (fourth). Leigh Shillington, a 13/14 year-old group competitor, placed third in 50 metre freestyle and 200 metre individual medley, setting personal bests in 100 metre breaststroke (fourth) and 100 metre backstroke (ninth).

Other Blue Fins swimmers at the meet included: Melissa Watts with a third place finish in 400 metre individual medley and a personal best time in 50 metre freestyle in the 13/14 year-old group. Thane Goodlet (13/14 year-old) finished fourth in 200 metre backstroke. Erin Shillington (10 and under) finished seventh in 100 metre backstroke and set a personal best time in 100 metre individual medley. Amy Willis (10 and under) finished seventh in 200 metre backstroke and managed a personal best time in 50 metre freestyle. Lauren Potosky (10 and under) competed in 50 metre freestyle, 100 metre backstroke and 100 metre individual medley.

GDHS athletes

The two badminton doubles team champions from last Friday's tournament at Georgetown District High School were chosen as the school's athletes of the week. Mike Bosman (left) and Chris Cambouris

Baseball registration

Members of the Georgetown Baseball Association held one of their registrations at Georgetown District High School on Wednesday night in preparation for the upcoming season. Pictured here are (in back) Brenda Lee, treasurer, and organizers Donna Blight and Dave Beavan. The Association is holding one more sign-up on April 6 at GDHS, after which players will be charged a late fee to join. (Herald photo)
