

Major PeeWee Bodanis Bruins end on busy note

By DOUG THOM
Herald Special
Bodanis Bruins ended a successful major PeeWee hockey season with a busy weekend of activity, resulting in a win and two ties.

On Thursday, Bruins travelled to Maple Grove arena in Oakville and tied the home team 2-2. Trailing 2-0 with 2:32 remaining, Brad Spears scored assisted by David Kotsos to reduce the lead to 2-1. Thirty-seven seconds later, Scott Truman slammed a slapshot into the lower right corner of the Oakville net to tie the game 2-2. Truman's goal was assisted by Kevin Lumb.

In a physical game with Chinguacousy on Saturday at Alcott Arena, Bruins thrashed the visiting Chinguacousy club 8-1.

David Kotsos opened Bruins' scoring at the eight minute mark of the first period on a goal assisted by Kevin Lumb. Fifty-seven seconds later, David Boere increased the lead to 2-0 on a solo effort.

On Sunday, Georgetown and

Brampton battled to a 4-4 tie and resulted in Georgetown being eliminated on total points from championship play with Oakville.

Georgetown assumed a 3-1 lead in the first period. Gary McLean opened the scoring early in the period assisted by Jamie Bottomly and Brad Spears. Brampton responded forty-two seconds later to tie the game 1-1. David Sabarski gave the Bruins a 2-1 lead on a goal assisted by David Kotsos and Fraser Thom. Jamie Bottomly increased the lead to 3-1 on a goal assisted again by David Kotsos.

Late in the second period, Georgetown assumed a 4-1 lead when Andrew Elinsky scored from the point position after receiving the face-off from David Kotsos. It was Kotsos' third assist of the game and marked a fine effort from the centre. Unfortunately, Brampton chipped away at the Georgetown lead and responded with three unanswered goals to tie the game 4-4 and end the Bruins' playoff hopes.

Both goalies Andrew Craig and

David Pearson are to be congratulated for outstanding goaltending during the regular season and in the playoffs. Their consistent steady play contributed to the success.

Many thanks from parents and fans went to coaches Dan Curtis, John McGrath and manager Don Pearson for their patience, understanding and leadership, which also contributed to the team's fine season. Sponsor Dan Bodanis' interest and attendance at the games provided quiet inspiration to the players.
