Talking history

If you could talk to the folks in these pictures, what would you ask them to tell you about their work? Ryan Taylor, archivist at the Grace Schmidt Room of Local History at Kitchener Public Library will speak about oral history - the importance of recording history, at Esquesing Historical Society, on April 10, 1991 at 7:30 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church. Everyone interested is welcome. (Photo submitted)

VON sponsors Health Fair

The Victorian Order of Nurses, Halton Branch, is sponsoring its Second Annual Health Products Fair on Thursday, April 18th, from noon to 8:00 p.m. The location is St. John's Roman Catholic Church on the corner of Brant Street and Blairholme Ave., in Burlington, Ont.

Thirty companies will be present, displaying a wide range of products from sick room equipment to aids to promote independence for the elderly. Nutritional supplements, personal security devices, mobility aids, clothing for the elderly, wound treatment alternatives, oxygen and other equipment and much, much more will be displayed. Representatives will be on hand to demonstrate and teach about their products and have literature and samples available.

Entrance is free and the Fair is open to the general public as well as members of the health care community.

Please call Carolyn Keyworth, Nursing Supervisor, 827-8800, for more details.
