

McGibbon No. 1 hands first loss to George No. 2

For those that know what is about to be written, Bob Nicholson is Bob Girdwood. Just correcting another one of my faux pas! Sorry Bob, will not occur again. (Met him in the coffee shop and he told me nicely).

April 1, Halton League ... play was no fool as McGibbon no. 1 gave George no. 2 their first defeat of the season and kept title aspirations alive. 8-6 leaves McGibbon an outside chance of overtaking the leaders; George no. 2 only require four points from the last league fixture at Exchange to seal victory. McGibbons meet each other and I am certain that the lads will strive all the way.

O'Tooles no. 1 gave Hollywood a 9-5 loss with Mike Sinnave scoring 140. Ron Vallance replied with a close of 14 and Marie Grootjen scored 157 and Gail Shepard 140 for the only extras.

It is worth recording that Sheryl Wakefield defeated Dr. Pepper in singles. O'Tooles no. 2 lost 6-8 at Timeout in a ding dong match. Jeff Henderson shot two 180s and two 140s, nice shooting.

Roger Vanderham scored 160 and Pete Pickering (3), Hunter Carroll (2) and Terry Hancock shot 140s with John Colter slotting in 132.

O'Tooles no. 3 won 12-2 over Copper Kettle no. 2, all the extras coming from O'Tooles. Dave Scutt, Paul Kirby, Marty Wheeler and Hugh Smid each contributing one or two.

Slow singles by Copper Kettle no. 1 proved to be their undoing, losing 5-9 to Exchange no. 1. Regular high scorer, Wayne Eagles, did it again with 140. Exchange no. 2, meanwhile, lost 10-4 to George no. 3. Jon Brown, Shayne Hillock, Ian Cooper and Ray Porter each notched over 130.

McGibbon no. 2, ladies, lost 3-11 to George no. 1 and no details were available (Bruce Stevens probably lost). George no. 2 lost, as said, and a great match was had by the lads and McGibbon no. 1, who are undefeated with one to play. Singles and teams were split with the home team taking three doubles. Gary Rodda shot 180, Ian McDonald closed 106 and these players together with Randy Hunt, Mark See, Ron Scarlett, Eric Fuller, Erwin See and Ged Williams scored high.

Wednesday, Industrial League ... A little confusion reigns in standings counts as to the foot of the first division finals. However, the matches went as follows. League winners lost 4-5 to Westenders, third place in a roustabout match. High Rollers, fourth, defeated second place, Gasketman Cutters 7-2, and Rollers were shorthanded. Bulldogs won 5-4 over Panthers and Ensigns defeated Steeprock

5-4. Top team in the second, Acadian Pools, clinched the placing with their 6-3 win over Taxmen. Aces crept back into second spot with 8-1 over Bandits as Inter County lost by the same score to Firemen. Finally Independents won 5-4 over Outlaws. Hit of the night must be Erwin See's 180. Tim Field closed 109, Ace Bailey opened 116 and Marty Wheeler scored 115. Art Cousens scored 124.

Midget/Juvenile Champions

Freestone Construction Midget/Juvenile team posted for a team picture after winning Georgetown Minor Hockey Association house league championship at Alcott Arena on Saturday. Freestone defeated Don's Sign Service 5-1 to earn the championship title. (Photo submitted)
