Branders win cash

Mae and Bill Brander of Norval came away from the Canadian International Farm Equipment Show $1,500 richer thanks to Country Guide's Exhibitor Hunt Contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Brander will use their prize money to buy Pioneer Hi-Bred seed corn. Show manager Dawn Morris selected Mae's "Hunt Card" at the close of the show February 8.

"Country Guide subscribers took cards to selected exhibitors and had them stamped," explained Dan Allen, Country Guide advertising manager. "Completed cards were then deposited in a ballot box at the Country Guide booth."

First-prize winner, Thomas Alderson of Wilsonville, selected $2,000 worth of Ciba-Geigy products. Herman Reinink, Londesboro, put his $1,000 third prize toward the purchase of a Ford New Holland rotary cutter. Fourth prize winner, Mark Measor, Cayuga, will receive $1,000 in financial services from Farm Business Consultants.

"The contest encouraged farmers to visit exhibits in various categories, namely equipment, seed, crop protection, and farm supplies or services," said Allen. "It was very popular with our advertisers and subscribers and we would like to thank all who participated."
