Georgetown Bowl

Senior team begins high-low tournament

GEORGETOWN BOWL SENIORS

The seniors had a very exciting week as the high-low doubles tournament began on April 11. This year the tournament will be run differently, as all teams will remain in the running until the last week. At this point, the team which has the most points over average will be awarded a prize.

Topping this week's scoreboard was again Dave Ridley 750(286). Following close behind the leader were Christina Lane 741(284), Robert Harrison 645(227), Eddie Doyle 621(236), and Laura Doyle 591(243).

The seniors will be playing in several tournaments that are coming up within the next few weeks. On April 14, the seniors paired up with a junior and bantam to compete in the Combo tournament in Georgetown, but results were unavailable at press time. The top male and female teams will be leaving our house round to compete in the zones.

Next weekend, the seniors will be competing in the Bowler of the Year tournament in Georgetown and then Dave Ridley, Brian Bell, Eddie Doyle and Christina Lane will be moving on to Acton Lanes to compete in the Master Senior. Bell will be bowling with master Brinlev Hole. Doyle will be with Carolyn Lane, Christina will be bowling with her father Gord Lane, and Ridley will pair up with Dee Dee Haynes.

To end the month on a high note, there will be two teams representing Georgetown Bowl at the Senior Invitational April 27-28 in Hamilton.

Rounding out the year, Georgetown will be sending three individuals to the Y.B.C. Bursary tournament, May 19, in Nepean. Brian Bell, Dave Ridley, and Eddie Doyle are three senior bowlers who will be graduating this year from the bowling council, and will be competing at Candido Bowl for the top prize of a first year of free master bowling.
