Last week the Georgetown AA minor novices participated in the Mississauga Reps Minor Novice Tournament, which began on April 12 and continues until April 21. So far Georgetown has two wins and one loss.

On April 12, Georgetown played Malton and won 3-1. This was a real team effort and a challenge the whole game. Georgetown came on strong and the first goal was scored 1:48 into the first period by Ryan Inglis, unassisted. Malton came back five minutes later to score their only goal.

At 17:50 in the second period, Martin Lefebvre got the second goal, assisted by Corey Forbes and Peter Veltman. With five minutes remaining in the second period, Andre Lefebvre scored the final goal unassisted. Corey Forbes was chosen MVP for this game.

Game two for Georgetown, on April 13, saw the team get another win. This time the minor novices met Oakville Cards and won 4-1. At the end of the first period, the game was tied 1-1. Peter Veltman scored the first goal at 16:34 unassisted. Malton managed their goal with three minutes remaining.

Four minutes into the second period, Greg Bidwell scored, assisted by Matt Walinga and Ryan Inglis. Peter Veltman scored the last goal unassisted, with 1:12 remaining. Ryan Inglis won the MVP of this game.

On April 14, Georgetown played Newmarket and lost 5-0. Georgetown held up in the first period. Stephan Paulin, the starting goalie was hot, making several saves as Newmarket continually drove the puck at the net.

At the end of the first period, the score was 1-0.

In the second period, Georgetown was overpowered and tired. They couldn't get a goal, although they put some shots on net. The MVP of this game went to a Newmarket player. The deciding game is this Saturday at 8:15 a.m., which will decide whether or not Georgetown will make it to the consolation game.
