First birthday party attracts overseas guests

By KAY WILSON
Ramesh and Anita Dhir and their sons Amit and Victor, proprietor of the Norval Convenience and Post Office, celebrated their youngest son, Sumit's first birthday on Saturday.

A party was held at the Lions Club, Mill St., Georgetown, with 130 friends and family, from England, Montreal and Toronto.

Get well wishes

Get well wishes to Audrey Willson of Huttonville, who is a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

Get well wishes to Clifford Cook, R.R.4, Georgetown, who is a patient in Georgetown and District Hospital.

Pinegrove euchre

Pinegrove euchre had six tables on Monday last. Winners were Ethel Webb, Mae Tost, Bruce Nixon and Alan Hives.

Lucky draw - Velma Ella, courtesy of Webbs Flowers and Margaret Wigglesworth; Travel Prize - Ernie Alexander. Committee - Bruce Nixons and John McNabbs.

Sincere sympathy

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Frank Carney, former Norval resident, who passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on April 13, in his 87th year.

Beloved husband of the late Edith Speirs. Dear father of Douglas Carney of Guelph. Fondly remembered by four grandchildren, Robin, Marie, Kenneth and Sara. Survived by sister Eleanor (Mrs. Wm. Hyatt) of Brampton, and two brothers, Bert Carney of Norval, and Elwood of R.R.1, Utterson, Ont.

Predeceased by son John, and grandson Jamie, sister Vera (Mrs. Charles Lawrence) and three brothers, James, Elmer and Bill Carney.

Funeral service was from the Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton, on April 17. Interment in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval.

Frank was one of a family of eight, the son of Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Carney, born and raised on Mississauga Road, north of 17 Sideroad. Frank and his wife Edith, along with his cousin Gordon Quinton, bought the hardware store on Norval's four corners, later the post office, from Frank Hustler, and managed this along with plumbing and heating for several years. They sold the hardware store to Wilf Kirkwood and moved to Rockwood where he and Edith bought the hardware store there. Some years later they retired to Guelph.

Frank's health had not been good for the past few years, but he still enjoyed attending the Steam and Antique Show at Milton on the Labour Day weekend, where he held a membership.

Pallbearers were Charlie, Peter, Bill and Raymond, Carney, Donald and Bob Carney.

Former resident dies

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Alice (Gray) Lester, formerly of Draper St.,
