

Fitness convenorship

Natalie Goldson (left) and Andrea Whiting are helping the Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department prepare for this year's Participation Challenge as part of their Grade 13 athletics convenorship. The two are pictured here preparing envelopes that are going out to local residents, encouraging them to take part in the event on May 29. Halton Hills was challenged by Brampton to see who could get a larger percentage of its population to exercise continuously for 15 minutes. (Herald photo)

Junior badminton champions

Georgetown District High School junior badminton players are number one in Halton again after winning the Halton Junior Championships at E.C. Drury on April 16. Rebels won back the title from Drury, making this the third time in four years Georgetown has won the championship. Pictured
