Both Halton and Industrial leagues are into the playoffs and closing fast towards the end of the season. Monday's Halton league playoffs are in Hollywood over the next two Mondays (29th and 6th). The banquet and awards night is set for May 25.

The teams sets were played in two sections at O'Tooles last week and there were no details on standings available to the writer. However, Exchange no. 2 did well in one section, losing only two out of 13 sets.

Similarly, in the other section George no. 2 only lost two of 13. Rick Harden, Brian Ward and Paul Kirby scored 180 each. High scores came from Dave Scutt, Mark See, Hugh Smid, Andrew Clifford, Mike Finn, Ian McDonald, Dan Hall, Ian Cooper, Al Murphy, Erwin See, Rob Hillier, Ged Williams, Dan Fraser, Stan Rhynold, Brian Hicks, Paul Goudie, Bruce Stevens, Paul Kirby and Barb Hope.

Simply have to mention the defeat of Dan Fraser, Brian Ward, Ged Williams and self by the ladies team of Monica Southon, Sheila Hicks, Pat Pickering and Barb Hope. The girls also won a game or two against other embarrassed players.

Finally, a reminder to many, and one in particular, I am not on the executive of the league and have nothing to do with any decisions, real or imaginary as perceived by some. Janet X, and whoever she represented, called me at my place of work on darts business, which I do not appreciate.

Wednesday and Industrial league playoffs. Leading the first section are Gasketman Cutters with High Rollers, Westenders and league winners Snowjacks Hustlers following. Cutters have a three point lead. At the head of the second division are Acadian Pools just ahead of Firemen and Inter County with Taxmen in fourth spot. With three sets and a total of fifteen points to play for, the chances of catching the front runners are slim.

High start was 120, by Rod Beaumont and Art Cousen with Jim Franks, 116, self, 108, and Cam Lavers and Terry Hancock, 100, next in line. Brian Hicks closed 94, Dan Fraser 69, and Henry Graham 68.

The high score was 140 and made by Paul Kirby, Jay Bishop, Mark See, Stan Rhynold, Al Murphy, Larry Hunt, Glen Monaghan, Cam Lavers, Paul Kavanagh, and Jim Franks. Hitting around the 120 mark were Bruce McCartney, Roger Moore, Cam Herman, Marty Claude, Mike Finn, John Burke, Ray Ackroyd, Jeff Richardson and Brad Hale shot 138. The Industrial league Banquet and Awards Night is set for May 5.

Gretzky camp winners

Georgetown resident Christopher Flynn (on right) and Cameron Hunter of Trenton will receive on-ice instruction from Wayne Gretzky, Brett Hull and Denis Savard at a hockey camp to be held June 24-25 in Richmond Hill. Both were selected from a hockey clinic at Maple Leaf Gardens on March 23 where Walter Gretzky (centre), Wayne's father, was in attendance as part of the "NHL Future Stars" program. (Photo submitted)
