Forum fun

After months of hard work by the cast and crew, Globe Productions "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" is set to premier next Thursday, May 2, 1991. Curtain time at the John Elliott Theatre is 8 p.m. for this and subsequent performances on May 3, 4, 9, 10 and 11.

Tickets are available at Royal Lepage Real Estate, 170 Guelph St. in Georgetown. All seats are $11 each, but at both Thursday performances (May 2 and 9) groups of 10 persons or more will receive a $2 discount.

Not surprisingly, there are many people involved in the staging of this hilarious musical comedy.

Producers Maureen Walker and Keith Mills have had to be "jacks of all trades," working on all aspects of the production. While Maureen gained experience co-producing "Guys and Dolls" last fall she admits producing "Forum" is a real challenge. However, she admits she is "having a ball" working on the show. As a first time producer Keith is finding out how much work is involved, including working on props and painting sets. Having acted in many Globe musicals Keith misses being on stage, but is enjoying the challenge of producing.

Artistic Director Vesta Jorgensen is once again using her talent and creativity to guide the cast of "Forum" through each scene. Vesta has found the company to be very cooperative and says "if the audience is as entertained as we are at rehearsals I'll be happy!"

Debbie Tilson is the Musical Director for "Forum" and finds this first-time venture really enjoyable. Debbie is well known in Halton Hills for both her musical and acting abilities. She says "the play is hilarious and was cast really well."

The Romans are on the way

That's right. Last Sunday Pages of the Forum cast Doug MacDougal, Craig Marshall and Paul D'Entrement along with the Soldier Roderick MacIntosh, were out in force to help point out all the information you need to know about the upcoming Globe production "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum." Tickets are going fast so don't put off buying your ticket or you may miss the Best Comedy of the season. (Herald photo)

Abulnar are the Choreographers for the play. Both are used to being on the other side of things as dancers in previous Globe shows. Diane and Tanya say they work well together and both find the cast has been really concentrating and working hard.

It takes talent and dedication to bring a musical comedy to the stage. Globe has found these qualities in its production for "Forum." Find out for yourself ... see you at the Forum.

Club 2000 changes

Norval's Club 2000 has hired Guelph-based Riviera Productions to book the club's musical entertainment, said club manager Daniel Biagioni last Tuesday.

The club will now be referred to as the Riviera/Club 2000 Entertainment Centre, according to a Riviera Productions press release. The centre will feature a wide range of musical entertainment such as country, jazz, big bands, rock, Bluegrass, teen dances and special events, states the press release.
