Euchre evening

By BETTY SOJKA
Set Thursday, (tomorrow) aside for an evening of Euchre. All caliber of players are welcome. The Euchre has become popular as it is a chance to play the game, visit, and the possibility of winning a prize. The fun starts at 7:30 p.m., at the Community Centre. With the admission cost of $3.00 per person, delicious sandwiches, cookies, tea and coffee will be served.

The season has started for the Ballinacraigh Men's baseball team. Named the Ballinacraigh Blue Jays, the team has been holding practices at the Ballinacraigh Park on Sunday afternoons. The Blue Jays belong to a house league, and have their week night games in Limehouse. The preseason practices, also double as tryouts. The team is looking to go into the 1991 season with a roster of 15.

Rain has plagued the Jim Dandies practices, forcing a few cancellations. With their new warm shirts, the ladies are more comfortable in the cooler weather. The Jim Dandies welcome Lori Taylor to their roster, having to replace the retiring June Longstreet. Lori plays a number of positions including 3rd base and back catching. During practices Coach Jim Bailey is concentrating on batting, and fielding. The team's first game is May 9th at the park.

A big "Hello" comes from Paul and Helga Schwartz, all the way from British Columbia. They wish all their friends and former neighbors well. This message sent back with a couple from the area who stayed with the Schwartz's for a week.

A full moon last Saturday night, brought fun loving spirits to the Community Centre for the Hard Times Dance. D. J. George with son Shane of S and S Sound, wound the crowd up, with a faster tempo than usual. The dance floor was never empty. A "Hard Times" meal was thoroughly enjoyed, consisting of spaghetti, beans, hot dogs, macaroni, etc. The crowd was further delighted with the spot prizes, which were food stuffs, such as loaves of bread, jam, peanut butter, rice, etc. Many thanks to Bruno Carnelos for a great job in bar tending. He was kept hopping all night long, with the large group. Also the Hall Board really appreciated the help of Michael and Dave Buckley, and Todd Claxton who helped in the kitchen, and with clean up. Many thanks also go out to Georgetown IGA for supplying potato chips, Val and Kim Kirton for supplying nuts, and Georgetown Pizza Hut for giving a wonderful door prize. These contributions helped make the dance truly successful.

Folks are reminded to come to the United Church this coming Sunday, May 5th at 11:30 a.m. to help celebrate the Church's 113th Anniversary. Special music will be put on by the Senior and Junior Choir.

Much appreciation goes out to the Senior Choir for sponsoring this month's newsletter.
