Musical Showcase

Centennial Middle School's music teacher, Paul Brisley, led the school concert band to another triumphant finish during the school's musical showcase held Thursday night. The packed crowd were entertained by the school band, choir and student dancers. (Herald photo)

Proud parent

Proud parents, like Karen Conron of Acton, packed the halls at M. Z. Bennett Public School Thursday night to view their children's projects made during environment week. Karen's daughter, Kirsti, researched hummingbirds made a book exhibiting all she learned about them which she showed to her mom. (Herald photo)

Race car draws a crowd

Amidst cheers of encouragement, Matthew Bodin (seated) set his self-made race car off in a wind-race held at M.Z. Bennett Public School in Acton Thursday night. The car races drew a large crowd of students and parents who attended the school's open house to view projects the children had made during environment week. (Herald photo)
