A Dave's Service Centre player provides some trouble for three Oakville Super "X" defenders during their men's over 35 division championship game at Alcott Arena on Sunday. Dave's Service Centre put a lot of pressure on the Oakville end, taking 32 shots at the net while allowing only eight as the Georgetown team won the Beaver Lumber tournament title for the third year in a row. (Herald photo)

Dave's team wins over 35 title

Coach Dave Welburn had his guys out in full force over the weekend as Dave's Service Centre won the 35 Plus Division at the Georgetown Beavers tournament, held at Alcott Arena April 26-28.

Skating for Welburn in net was Mark Vermander and when he had to work, Bob White took over the net minding job. Out in front were Jim Blair, Ray Woodward, Dave Welburn, Glen McMillan, Don Henry, Peter Hammond, Orrie Karas, Alex Branton, Dave Guest, Harry Van Bilsen, Dave Mander and Dwayne Hay. On the bench were manager Sonny Puskas and coach Chris GoodheW.

Friday the guys performed a quick overhaul on the Elliot Lake gang, beating them 10-1. Dwayne Hay skated off with the M.V.P. for the game. Saturday's first game Air Canada met Dave's boys at 1 p.m. and although the game was tough, Dave's boys earned themselves a spot in the championship game, beating Air Canada 3-2. Once again Dwayne Hay shone and picked up the M.V.P. for the game.

Later at 8:30 p.m. the guys met Acton. With a few players absent and trying to conserve enough energy for tomorrow's championship game, the guys were caught off guard and lost 5-3. Coach and manager quickly took the team to Dave's Service Centre for a quick tune-up and Sunday they were flying when they met Oakville for the championship. Oakville was a big and strong team, after 10 minutes of play the score was 1-1.

Dave's guys quickly slipped into high gear and never looked back, flipping the scoreboard four more times to make it a 5-1 win. Dave Monder banged the winning goal in.
