

Sincere sympathy extended to Cook family

By KAY WILSON

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Clifford Cook, who passed away at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital on April 22.

Beloved husband of Dorothy Widdis, and loving father of Allan of R.R. 4, Bill and his wife Judy of Georgetown, and Bob and his wife Monica of Chatsworth, Ont. Loved grandfather of Roni, Angela, Kevin, Heather, Emily, Alica, Miranda and Ryan.

Dear brother of Jack Cook of Bowmanville, Bill Cook of Georgetown and Enid McBride of Brampton.

Clifford was born and raised on the family farm on Lot 20, Concession 11 (Winston Churchill Blvd.) He was a third generation farmer, and enjoyed working with the good earth. Up to the time of ill health, Clifford helped his son Allan with the farm chores and tractor work.

Always community-minded, Clifford was ready and willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. An avid euchre player, he enjoyed a good game of cards, with his friends and neighbors.

Just last October 26, Clifford and Dorothy celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, when their family surprised them with a party, following a family dinner.

Friends were received at the J.S. Jones and Son Funeral Home, Georgetown, on April 23.

Funeral service was held in the chapel on April 25.

Interment in Glen Williams Cemetery. In memory contributions to the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.

Rev. Mary Campbell conducted the funeral service, assisted by Pastor Dave Tapley. During the service Sandra Greig sang two beautiful songs "How Great Thou Art" and "It is Well With My Soul."

Pallbearers included Ken McHugh, Murray Judge, Rick
