NEILSON'S LEAGUE
High Triple: Derek Edwardson 79(316, 162, 301), John Bos 11(243).
High Singles: Jon Golden 240, Ivan O'Meara 240, Dave Fraser 224, Greg Fletcher 220.
 The Neilsons League team reps and zone champs in the 'Black Tower' Provincial Team Championships, really made it an exciting competition at the Regional Finals. Having placed third in the qualifying round of all the zone champions, they went into the championship round with one player unable to compete.

However, coach Ralph Miller settled down the bowlers to work and they defeated the second place team. With that lift, the fight was terrific in the battle against the first place team, and the locals came within 20 points of overcoming them. Being second overall after not making the finals last year, had the bowlers saying the usual, 'wait 'til next year' and meaning it.

GOLDEN AGERS

The Golden Age men's team at Georgetown Bowl made it all the way to the provincial finals of the National Triples Team Championship tournament. In Cambridge, Elmer Pembleton, Al Hives and Ernie Pearce managed third place in the standings.

GEORGETOWN BOWL SENIORS

Great bowling and an even better time was had by all at the Senior Invitational Tournament on April 27 in Hamilton. The seniors bowled extremely well as the Georgetown no. 1 team finished third in their division and the team no. 2 finished 5th. Starting the playoffs in top form were: Robert Harrison 678(235), Brian Bell 659(267), Joe Robichaud 625(299), and Sharon Shapcott 605(247). Special mention goes out to Sheri Myers who bowled up a storm and rolled a 272 game which is more than 100 pins over her average.

The seniors will be trying their best this coming week as they complete their playoffs.

Baton Champions

Andrea Chisholm (left) and Susan Thibodeau display the plaques and medals they won at the Ontario Baton Twirling Championships at Humber College April 19-21. Thibodeau won the senior women's dance twirl championship and qualified for the senior women's freestyle team that is competing in the Canadian National Competition in Calgary in July. Chisholm also earned a trip to Calgary by helping the King's National Baton's East Club five member team win the World Team Ontario Semi-Trials. Chisholm's team also won the Canadian Baton Twirling Federation team championship, while her individual efforts earned her a silver medal in the level 'A' freestyle division and a bronze in the level 'A' dance twirl championships.
