Sick Chairmans Report
On my hospital rounds this past week, I stopped into see James Sherin again. Had a chat with both he and his wife. Jim had undergone an operation but appeared to be resting comfortably. Gave him a copy of the local newspaper discussed some of the latest happenings at the branch.

I had been remiss in visits to the Bennett Centre, but I caught up with our two WWI members again. Bill Gibbs, as usual was quite chipper and pleased to see me. In our conversation he said that Duke Wilson had been moving around in his wheelchair and thought that Duke looked better. I did find Duke much brighter than in the past, I think he understood, if only slightly and he was able to thank me for visiting with him. If any of the members have an opportunity to drop in to see them, I know it will be much appreciated.

Any member who has seen the notice board lately will be aware of the return to hospital of Red Roshier. He has had further complications requiring his return to Credit Valley, I was in touch by phone and if he is still in next week, I will visit him again.

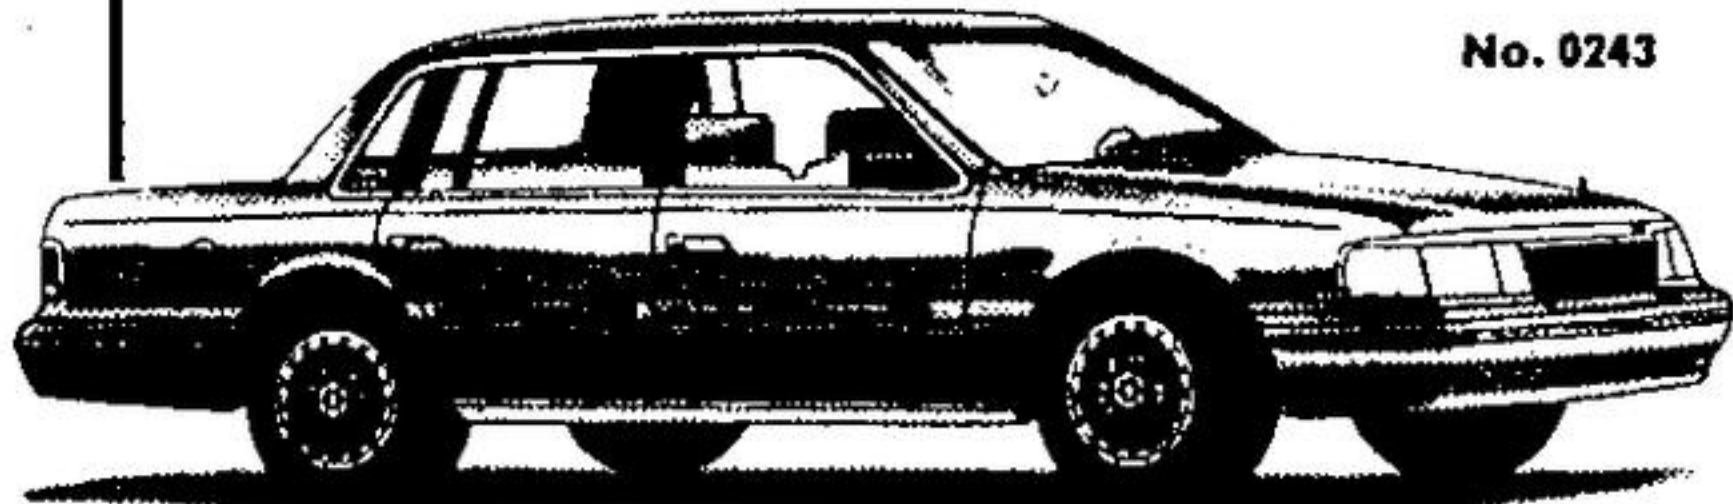

As you may notice one of the winners of the meat draw was Harry Allen. He was able to come into the Branch and participate. This is great news, and it would be a real break from the hospital routine, Harry I trust you enjoyed the afternoon, good to have you with us.
