Top performances given by Blue Fins swimmers

Alison Duby led all Halton Hills Blue Fins swimmers at the Ontario Quad 'A' Team Championships at the Etobicoke Olympium April 26-28, taking home one gold, two silver and two bronze medals.

Duby, swimming in the 10 and under group, placed first in 100 metre backstroke, second in 50 metre fly and 50 metre freestyle, and third in 100 metre freestyle and 200 metre individual medley.

Duby was one of 22 Halton Hills competitors among 708 other athletes (38 clubs) at the event, which was also highlighted by a silver medal finish by Neil Scudder in the boys 13/14 year-old group's 200 metre backstroke race. Scudder placed fifth in 100 metre backstroke and sixth in 400 metre freestyle as well.

Blue Fins teams also provided some competition, with the girls 13/14 age group taking fourth in the 200 metre freestyle relay, and sixth in 200 metre medley relay. The girls 10 and under relay team placed fifth in 200 metre medley relay and seventh in 200 metre freestyle relay.

Also doing well individually were Sabrina Bassett (13/14 age group) with a bronze in 50 metre freestyle and an eighth place effort in 200 metre.
