Hospital celebration planned

The driving force behind the establishment of Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital began well over 100 years ago when George Kennedy arrived in this area he called Hungry Hollow.

Some 120 years later, Georgetown's founder would have been proud of the progress made in his community. While steady growth had increased the population to 20,000 by 1959, the area had managed to escape the frenzied development experienced by other nearby villages and cities.

Coupled with the increase in population came the need for a hospital and it was in 1960 that construction began on Georgetown Hospital. A year later, the doors opened to a responsive and welcoming crowd.

Like the town, Georgetown Hospital has expanded over the years. Today it is a 112-bed primary, acute and long-term facility with over 300 employees.

To celebrate the hospital's past, present and future, an Open House is planned for June 23 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Free for the entire community, the afternoon-long event will offer residents plenty of fun, food, entertainment and interesting exhibits.

In addition to the best strawberry cake in Halton Hills, there will be clowns, 1960s-style contests, "Andy" the robot ambulance, music, give-aways, and more.

Also part of these 30th celebrations is Operation '91, a humorous variety/benefit show to be held June 21 and 22 at the John Elliott Theatre.

Everyone is encouraged to join in the fun by celebrating the Hospital's 30 years of history.
