How To Write A Good Classified Ad

1. Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling. This makes it easier for the reader to locate your advertisement.
2. Always include the price of the item you are selling. Many readers of the Classifieds will not respond to an ad which does not include a price.
3. Place yourself in the readers position. Ask what you would like to know about the merchandise you are selling. Include information such as brand name, colours and other specific descriptions in your ad and you will receive a quicker response from the reader.

NOTICE

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one insertion of a classified ad containing an error. The advertiser agrees that the publisher shall not be liable for damages arising out of errors in advertisements beyond the amount paid for the space actually occupied by that portion of the advertisement in which the error occurred, whether such error is due to the negligence of its employees or otherwise and there shall be no liability for non-insertion of any advertisement beyond the limit paid for such advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to edit, revise, classify or reject any advertisement.

IN MEMORIAM

BLUDD, Kathleen - In loving memory of a dear Mother and Grandmother who passed away May 13, 1989.

We cannot have the old days back When we were all together. But secret tears and loving thoughts Will be with us forever.

Always remembered and sadly missed Mom, Son Terry, Daughter-in-law Marina, Grandchildren Michael, Brian, Timothy, and Tara.

IN MEMORIAM

McCUTCHEON, Betty - In memory of my loving wife, Betty, who passed away May 17, 1990.

I remember the day I met you, and the day God made you mine. I remember the day I lost you, and I will 'til the end of time. Among my tears and heartaches, there's one thing that makes me glad. That you chose me to share the precious years you had. No tears can show, or words can say How much I lost on that sad day. For in God's garden, now at rest, Peacefully sleeping, lies one of the best. Without you with me, I feel so alone, I smile, I laugh and I play the part. But behind it all, lies an aching heart. When days are lonely and long, I seem to hear you whisper, "Cheer up and carry on." If the world were mine to offer, I'd give it all and more. To see your loving face, come walking through the door.

So sadly missed, Charlie

McCUTCHEON, Betty - In loving memory of our dear mother and loving grandma, who passed away May 17, 1990.

Our thoughts are always with you, your place no one can fill. In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still. They say that time heals everything, we know that isn't true, Because it hurts as much today, as it did one year ago. No matter how we spend our day, no matter what we do, No morning dawns, no night returns, without a thought of you. When we are sad and lonely, when everything goes wrong, We seem to hear you whisper, "Cheer up and carry on." Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm only sleeping, we'll meet again someday." If we could have one lifetime wish, one dream that would come true, We would pray to God with all our hearts, for yesterday and you.

Memories are forever We love you, Candie, Ed, Bradley, Shelley and Danny, Grandchildren, Amy, Gena, Cory-Lynn and Danile (D.C.)
