

Royal Pizza continues to burn Slopitch opponents

Royal Pizza's bats continue to be hot as they now have scored 26 runs in two games, beating Optimist on Sunday.

Don Peacock continues to lead his team as he hit his second homerun in as many games.

John Curran, Doug Fuller and Sam Vanclleaf also provided multiple hits in this lop-sided score. Royal's defence was at it's best with Ken Norman's snag at the fence and Clive Searl's excellent form at rover.

Keith Ewing and Brian Getty each went three for three for Optimist. Kevin Galway was initiated into the league with several blistering shots at third base. Mark Ashley keeps making great plays in the outfield.

Firemen 7 Living Lighting 6
Once again John Wilson provided the offence as he cranked out his second homerun of the season to cap a four run rally in the third inning to take the lead. Gord Cash and Scott Kozar also had two hits apiece to help out Firefighters.

Ed Pearce had an outstanding game as he had two hits, two RBIs and the game winning run. Bill Kirby and Ron Quinton added the defence for the winning squad. Details of the Living Lighting team were not provided.

Kendale 15 Capital Ford 7

Kendale Mechanical's bats finally got on track as they pounded out 23 hits and scored 15 runs. Al Presley and Dave Parent hit homeruns with Dave going four for four and scoring three runs.

Both Gary Louth and Bob McLeod went three for four. Glen Puckering's aggressive base running got him two doubles and a single for a three for three performance at the plate.

Capital Ford's big inning was in the third when they hit 10 consecutive singles, starting with Bert Tripp and ending with Bob Weeks. In the losing cause, Spencer Amos, Jerry Hilts and Bob Weeks all went two for three.

Random Car Club 5
Park Lincoln 3

Random launched a four run assault in the first inning to put this one out of Park's reach. Paul Perkins had two RBIs to lead Random's offence, while Kevin Webster and Bob Morrow each turned double plays to shut the door on Park. Even with Tony Perkins and Webster fanning, Random held on for the win.

Jim Readman's towering two run homer in the second mounted Park's comeback attempt, but Random's defence held them back. Lance Reid scored after doubling in the seventh for Park's final run. An awesome stab and a backhanded toss to get the out at first by Ken Sproule helped keep this game close.

Nfld. Club 5 Lions Club 4

The Newfies rallied in the fifth inning when Scott Dwyer poked a double to cash in two runs, and pull this one from the Lions' jaws.

Dave Maddigan held the Lions back by making a run saving catch in the third, and Alf Rees turned a double play to save another two from scoring.

The Lions kept it tight with some nice defense from Dave Callaghan at short, and good pitching from Paul Dodd. Glen Pemberton, Steve Harlow and Bob Still each had two singles, and Rick Currie cranked a double but it wasn't enough to top the Newfies who are now 2-0.

Kinsmen Club 8 Elks Club 3

Kinsmen attacked in the fourth inning with five runs, as Bryan Whitteker and Paul Heron both slammed taters to lead their team to victory. Whitteker poked out another homer in the sixth, and fanned five batters over six innings to keep the Elks bats at bay and put the Kinsmens record at 2-0.

Elks Club showed some good defense from Ron Osborne and Ken McMullen to keep this one respectable. Dave Bettiol and Melvin Speers both cranked doubles, but the big winner here was the Elks beer fund due to those five strikeouts.

Halton Hills Gymnastics Club provides competition at meets

All members of the Halton Hills Gymnastics Club made good showings at three recent competitions, including several top finishes by some athletes.

At the Orangeville Invitational, Megan Rowland, competing in the five and six group, led all her teammates, placing first all-round by taking first in vault and bars, and second in beam and floor. Chantelle Evans took second overall with firsts in beam and floor, second in bars and third in vault.

In Tiny 'A', Daniela Soria placed second overall by taking second in vault and beam, along with a third place finish in bars and eighth in floor. Ashley Johnson took third with a first in bars, second in floor, fourth in beam and eighth in vault. Jennifer Robertson placed fourth with a first in floor, second in bars and sixth in vault and beam.

In Tiny 'B', Bethan Elliot finished in sixth after placing fourth in bars, sixth in vault, seventh in beam and eighth in floor. Sinead Irvine placed seventh in beam and bars as well as eighth in vault and floor, but was unable to place.

Also at Orangeville, the Advanced Recreational Group put in some competitive placings, led by Kendra Jones, who captured eighth overall. Jones took fifth in vault and floor, along with seventh in beam.

Kerry Wiltshire took third in beam and floor, Kim Davidson took first in beam and seventh in bars, placing ninth overall.

Tammy Dooley placed second in beam, seventh in floor and eighth in vault to capture 10th place. Also competing were Julie Dugas, Julie Brown, Meredith Sones and Sarah Scotford.

At the Guelph Saults Invitational, Megan Rowland again stood out, taking fourth all-round after placing third in vault, fourth in beam, fifth in bars and seventh in floor. Chantelle Evans took sixth in floor, but didn't place.

In Cadet 'A', Jennifer Robertson placed sixth all-round by taking fourth in vault, sixth in beam and seventh in bars and floor. Ashley Johnson placed fourth in vault and seventh in beam and floor, but didn't place, as did Daniela Soria, who took fifth in vault.

Bethan Elliot and Sinead Irvine competed in Cadet 'B', with Elliot taking eighth in vault and bars, while Irvine placed seventh in bars. Neither managed to place all-round.

At the Toronto Gymnastics International meet, Ashley Johnson was the top Halton Hills member, placing ninth all-round with a fourth place in floor, fifth in vault, sixth in beam and 10th in bars.

Daniela Soria placed 10th all-round with a fifth place finish in beam and sixth in bars. Jennifer Robertson took 13th, placing first in bars and eighth in beam.

The Advanced Recreational Group also competed, highlighted by Julie Dugas who placed fourth in vault, sixth in beam and seventh in floor, but did not get an overall ranking.

Kerry Wiltshire placed sixth in floor and 10th in beam, Tammy Dooley took eighth in bars and beam, Kim Davidson took ninth in bars, Meredith placed ninth in beam, Julie Brown placed 10th in floor and Sarah Scotford participated also.

Megan Rowland, Chantelle Evans, Bethan Elliot and Sinead Irvine are all in their first year of competition and are coached by Tracey Clark and Jenifer Arnold. The Tiny 'A' group are coached by Paula Geniole. The Advanced Recreational girls are coached by Lana Hase. The Tiny 'A' members will be competing later this month at the Burlington Spring Cup. They train between six and 16 hours per week.
