Norval U.C.W. Unit Two meets

By KAY WILSON

Norval U.C.W. Unit Two met at the home of Lenore Laidlaw on May 8.

President Gwen Laidlaw welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with a reading.

The roll call was answered by a donation of knitting wool to be sent to "Old Crow" a community in Yukon.

The members were reminded about the annual chicken barbecue to be held at Huttonville School on May 25. Tickets can be obtained from any church member.

The family church picnic will be held May 26 at the Norval Community Centre at 10:30 a.m. Bring a lawn chair.

Elaine Crawford gave us information about the organ that the church is considering purchasing.

The devotion was taken by Marilyn Buck and Gwen Laidlaw. Marilyn Buck told us about a bus trip that is being planned for the U.C.W. We will travel to St. George near Brantford on June 19. An auction sale was conducted by Lenore Laidlaw, the evening concluded with lunch served by the hostess and her committee.

Some promise

Power members and their followers will not forget easily the Minister of Environment Ruth Grier's reply at Queen's Park last Wednesday following the protest demonstration. The Ministry seems bent on putting Halton Hills through a hearing that will put our municipality into bankruptcy. Members can't forget when Premier Bob Rae came to look at the Acton quarry area before the election, and readily agreed it was no place for a "dump", especially for water reasons, but now seems to have forgotten his promise. Some promise!!

Baptism Sacrament

At Home Church Sunday morning service the Sacrament Baptism was conducted by the Rev. Walter Beecham for Heather Mary Lyn Crawford, daughter of Don and Carolyn (Cook) Crawford. Following the service a buffet luncheon was enjoyed at the home of Don and Carolyn and around 30 family members followed the family tradition.

Correction

In the Baptisms of Norval United Church last Sunday, one of the twin daughters Erin Billie Doane, daughter of John and Joan Doane was incorrectly typed out on the church calendar as a son rather than a daughter.

Anniversary service

Huttonville United Church's 105th anniversary service will be held June 2 at 11 a.m. Home and Norval Churches will be closed for this special service.

Norval News

Rev. Pat Ashwin of Chalmers United Church Guelph, will be guest minister. Rev. Ashwin was classmate of Rev. Beecham, as well as a former minister over 25 years ago.

Sincere sympathy

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Bertram Lyons of Dorset, Ontario who passed away May 14 at Toronto General Hospital in his 70th year.

Son of the late Edgar and Jennie Lyons, brother of Joe Lyons of Streetsville and the late Bernice McCaugherty. Friends were received at the Ward Funeral Home, Brampton, where funeral service was held in the chapel. Interment is Boston Mills Cemetery.

The Lyons family had farmed on Winston Churchill Blvd. south of Steeles at Lisgar Station since 1910, and Bert, the youngest, along with Joe and Bernice, attended the one room Victoria

School at Whaley's Corners.

However, development forced Joe to retire from farming and he is now living in Streetsville.

Progress has made it necessary to take down the lovely old farm homes and barns, now waiting for development in the area.

Chicken barbecue

Norval United Church Annual Chicken Barbecue, May 25 at 4-8 p.m., at Huttonville School, featuring Maple Lodge Barbecue Chicken, home made salads and pies, entertainment, including "Bonkers the Clown". Tickets $6.50 adults, $4.50 children. At the door $7.50 and $4.50. Ticket info - 877-5105, 877-8836, or 826-7337.

Special church weekend

The weekend of June 2nd and 3rd, members of Norval Presbyterian Church are looking forward to a family celebration for the 153rd anniversary.

The events start with a picnic on the church lawn at 2 p.m. Saturday with races, skits and fun, then a barbecue at 4 p.m.

On Sunday at 11 a.m. Rev. James Farris will be the guest minister, along with special music.

Special certificate

Georgetown crossing guard John Tooby always has a smile and joke for students he helps cross the road on Mary Street, so Park Public School student, Jodi Hutzell, felt he should be honored and created a special certificate which was presented to Mr. Tooby at a school assembly last Friday morning. Here, Jodi and Mr. Tooby share a smile in the schoolyard after the assembly. (Herald photo)
