

Bang-O-Rama 1991

Frisky newborn

This newborn colt from the Riding School for the Disabled in Terra Cotta was frisky but school owner Irene Corbett held it long enough for Georgetown boy Nick McLaughlin to pet its head. The school horses were at Bang-O-Rama offering pony rides. They're usually used to teach physically handicapped children how to walk.

Clear the track

Big Sister Andrea Forbes of Georgetown did the driving while her younger sibling Bobbi-Lyn did the riding on Conklin Midway's fire truck ride for kids at the Optimist Club-sponsored Bang-O-Rama on the weekend.
