Vintage aircraft feature

The aircraft that scored major victories for the coalition forces during Desert Storm will put on a major flying display in Hamilton, Father's Day Weekend.

Four A-10 Warthogs will perform a highly skilled tactical demonstration during the 17th annual Big V Drug Stores Hamilton International Air Show. The A-10s are from the Pennsylvania Air National Guard. Canada's CF-18 fighter will stage a flying demonstration as well as be on ground display. The CF-18 was Canada's major contribution to the Coalition Forces.

A "Tribute Flypast" to the Coalition Forces of Desert Storm will be part of the flying program. The unique tribute will involve aircraft from the famous collection of the Canadian Warplane Heritage Museum including the Lancaster Bomber and Douglas A-26 Invader.

The Canadian Forces nine plane jet demonstration team the "Snowbirds" will fly a breath taking show both days. Clint McHenry of Pompano Beach, Florida will put his Russian Sukhoi through the paces as will glider aerobatic pilot Manfred Radius.

Air Show General Manager Al Lutchin, described the event "as a tremendous opportunity to see fighters, bombers and trainers that made history from WW II to the Persian Gulf."

Aircraft ground displays are a major part of the air show and will be open starting at 7:30 a.m. both days. Lutchin said the flying display will be the same for Saturday and Sunday. A pre show display by the Royal Canadian Air Cadets will involve a unique launch and recovery demonstration of gliders. The demonstration is in recognition of the 50th anniversary of the Air Cadet organization.

Wedding under Mynarski Lancaster

Lutchin said a wedding will be part of the Saturday Air Show. "Eileen Filsell of Toronto and Major Terry Hobbs have decided to exchange the holy vows of matrimony under the wing of the CWH Lancaster Bomber Saturday morning," said Lutchin. Hobbs, 43, of Wilmington, Delaware is with the Pennsylvania Air National Guard and will be one of the pilots flying with the A-10 demonstration team. Filsell, 36, works for Boeing DeHavilland of Downsview is also a pilot.

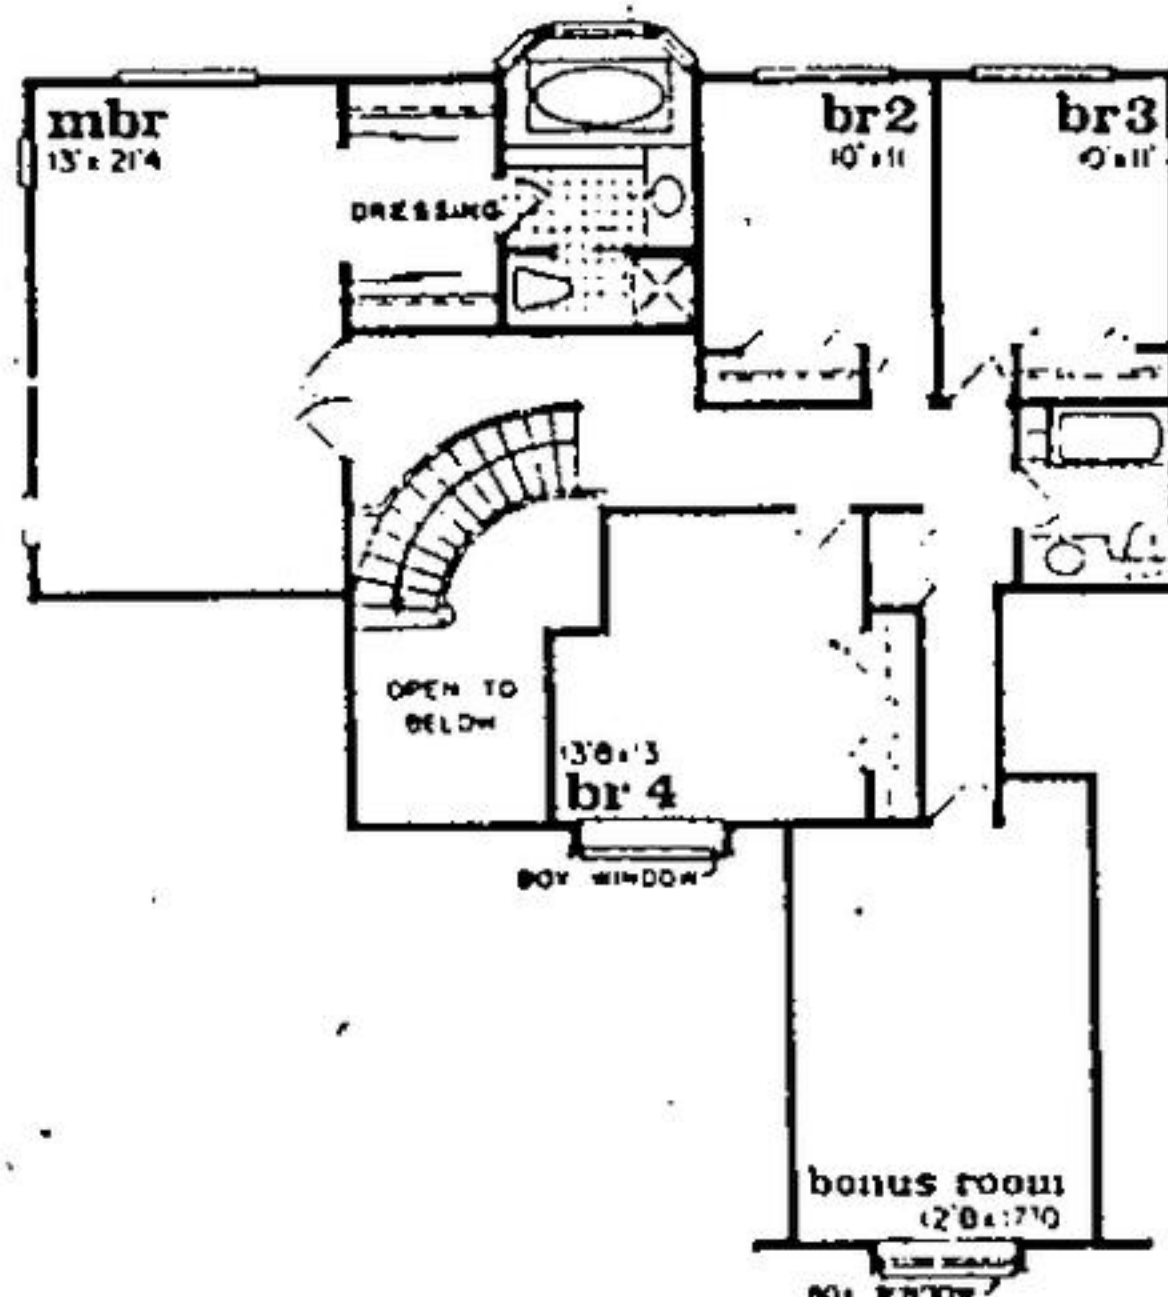

Traffic flow will be faster this year by using more and better positioned Hamilton-Wentworth Regional Police, and alternate routing. Parking has been expanded to accommodate the growing audience.

Major performers for the world famous event include:

- Canadian Forces Snowbirds Jet Team
- CF-18 Hornet
- Pennsylvania Air National Guard A-10 Warthog Tactical Demonstration

- Hawker Hurricane
- Clint McHenry's Russian built Sukhoi aerobatic aircraft
