By LINDA ANDERSON
Herald Special
MONDAY MAY 13TH

La Bats Blue 13; Outlaws 6
La Bats were connecting enough to pen those Outlaws in. Holding down the fort was Rose Ann Harrison, Holly Peterson and Patti Sunnucks each with a double and running catches by Colleen Cadger and Julie Ferraro.

Meanwhile, the Outlaws were trying to shake loose with Betty Fendley's shooting from the mound, the two Bonnies going two for two, Linda Ovenden and Sue Williams great arms and Pat Herrington slinging a two run homer.

Green Monsters 13, She Devils 5
Horns were locked in the first four innings but the Monsters managed to shake loose in the fifth. Linda Donais batted a double, Cathy Seaton chalked up three runs and stole two bases, with Suzette Corley stealing four bases and scoring two runs, along with Linda Anderson's three RBI's and one run scored.

In hot pursuit for Devils was Bev Barrett with two doubles and Jeannie Brookes, Ruby Gingras and Kim Kirk each with a double. Good pitching from Chris Stoyles.

Tony's Tarts 14, The Sequel 8
"How sweet the tarts" are as they play against the Sequels. Gail Sheppard's two doubles, Carolyn Woodworth's double, Jeanine Lorusso's triple and Heather Hansen's homerun sweetened the victory for the Tarts.

For the Sequels, Mary Becker played a great game. Sorry girls, no info from your coach.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15TH

Peelers 23, Black Widows 10
Those Peelers were at it again, smothering the Widows with another big win.

For the Peelers, Sharon Caters with a triple and a double, a triple from Tracy Gruter, two dables from Diane Moore, one double from Bonnie Hatcher. Bonnie Penny and Rose Wilcox.

For the Widows, Denise Brownlee batted two for two, Yvonne Readman doubled, Susan Grant smashed in two RBI's and Tammy Lockwood hit a grand slam home run, Fabulous fielding by Julie Cutting and Robin Richardson made them no slouches.

Thunderbuns 14,
Bishops Queens 13

The Thunder came rolling in as the Queen's watched the Buns take a slim lead, even though Bernice Griffiths and Annette Van Dyke each hit home runs, Dini Fhser a triple, and four doubles from others.

The Buns came up winners with doubles from Judy Faulhafer, Gail Houghton and Teri Korzack. Great catches in field by Lori Sinnaeve and good pitching from Joanne Kemper.

Infield Flies 11,
Champagne on Ice 9

The Champagne was not fizzing on those Flies with a close game played.

Those bats were buzzing for the Flies with Carolyn Gingras, Sheila Kirk, Linda Armstrong and Sharon Annette all batting three for three. Brenda Cole and Kim Wilton both hit doubles.

Girls on Ice just couldn't break through, even with great pitching and thoroughing four runners out, Paulette Friolet's homerun, Wendy Shannon's triple and Lori Taylor's double.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15TH

Tony's Tarts 11, Outlaws 10
A pie in the face for the Outlaws as the Tarts sweetened their lead.

Great defence was in the field from Marie Doucette and Heather Hansen with Marie also batting a double and Jeanine Lorusso following suit. Reluctantly I mention Mary McLaughlin rallying with her first home run this year.

The Outlaws were chomping at the bit with Dawn Broadbent's triple, Sharon Zmija's hitting and base stealing by Linda Ovenden, but they just couldn't mount-up with the Tarts in the saddle again.

Travelling Blueberries 22,
She Devils 19

Those Berries stained the Devils with great pitching, doubles hit by Brenda Bennett, Lauri Crazier, Elaine Moreland, Jane Roberts-Long, Sharon Sargent and Donna Sprole with a triple and a home run blasted by Elaine Moreland.

The Devils tried to remove the stains with two doubles each from Doreen Dobbins, Ruby Gingras and Yvonne Golden along with Bev Barrett, Monica Donaldson, Kim Kirk, Lori Sproule and Teri Wenham each rining out a double, but they couldn't wash out that stain.

Infield Flies 7, La Bats Blue 5

La Flies had La Bats going as they swarmed in for the win, with Janet Ransom buzzing on the mound.

With Pat Aker's triple and doubles from Lynn Fairmont, Caryoln Gingras and their two pitchers, the Blues couldn't catch La Flies. Even though Julie Ferraro was outstanding on the mound, Holly Peterson wacked a triple and Sue Ferguson slapped out a triple and a double, the trap was open for the Flies.

Ultramarathon man

Al Howie, a top world ultramarathoner from British Columbia, was practicing for his cross Canada attempt in Georgetown on Friday. He is trying to make the trip in 72 days, starting from St. John's, Newfoundland, on June 21, in a bid to raise money for children with special needs. Money raised by the event, called "Tomorrow Run '91", will be distributed through the Elks Club's national charity, the Elks Purple Cross Fund. (Herald photo)
