Page remains

Local lawyer Dave Page was elected for another term as the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce President during the Chamber's annual general meeting Tuesday at the North Halton Golf and Country Club.

The upcoming year will mark the second year in a row that Mr. Page will have held the Chamber presidency. Also elected as Chamber Vice-President were Wes Whitford of Acton's Whiteclay Enterprises and Bob Malcolmson, Halton Hills Herald publisher.

As part of his acceptance speech, Mr. Page touched on several subjects including Halton Region's increase to its development fees, the election of the non-business oriented New Democratic Party government and the rise of local ratepayers groups like Protect Our Water Environmental Resources (POWER) and Residents Active in Development Decisions.

Mr. Page told the audience of approximately 60 local business people the chamber must broaden its base to meet these and other challenges. In order to broaden its base, Mr. Page said, the chamber needs more directors from the Town's industrial and manufacturing companies.

Special seniors night

Acton Senior Citizens got the chance for a night of entertainment last Tuesday evening at Acton High School, which also involved safety tips centering on the theme, "Don't be a victim."

Acton Village Constable, Bill Riddle, organized the evening, which featured songs by the Acton Gold Age Chorus (pictured above), a performance by the Halton Regional Police Chorus and guest soloist, Rima Raju.

Included in the evening's fare were four skits performed by members of the Acton High School Drama Club stressing the importance of seniors being aware of potentially dangerous situations. To the left, Acton High students Troy Winters and Dana Medland, run through the skit, 'The Con Man' where Troy plays the part of a phony telephone repairman. Other skits included, 'The Burglars,' 'Seniors Watch' and 'The Purse Snatcher.' Students involved in the production of the skits, under the direction of Bonnie McDougall, also included, Julian Sark, Marnie McLeod, Jennifer Hanson, Sheri Hopkins, Terri Petrillo, Julie Ockender, Tracy Smith, Kyle Fitzsimmons, Richard Weston and Clayton Legs.
