

Congregation treated to a beautiful anniversary service

A large congregation enjoyed a beautiful 158th anniversary service at Union Presbyterian Church, 22 Sideroad on May 26.

The congregation had asked their own minister Rev. Mary Campbell to be their special speaker for this, her first anniversary, with Union Church.

She chose for her sermon "How to be a people," with fitting reminders of the past, and for the future, of how to be a people of God.

The regular choir was augmented by friends of the Norval Presbyterian Church choir. They rendered beautifully the selection "Break forth into joy". Guest soloist was Don Madole, who sang two relevant selections, one of which was "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings."

Many members of the congregation led in prayer.

Tina Middlebrook prayed for newborn and the nursery children.

Marion Lookman for Primary Children, Rev. Mary Campbell for the Teens, Terry Leslie for the Sunday School, John Bryden for Parents and Partners, Catherine Leslie for Seniors, Sandy Malcolm for the Choir, Elsie Dolson for the Ladies Groups, Bill Ostrander for the Board of Managers, Bob Rosie for the Session, George Rankin for the Congregation.

As each of these people finished their prayer, they placed a lovely pink rose in a vase, that made a beautiful bouquet.

Responsive reading was led by Lillian Rosie, and the scriptures were read by Elizabeth and Paul Campbell.

Greeting the congregation at the door were Terry Leslie and Herb Dolson. Ushers were Scott Campbell, Bob Rosie, Erin Leslie and David Thompson.

Following the service, refreshments and fellowship were enjoyed.
