How do you chill out in the summer?

Annie Parent, 10, Grade 4, Sacre Coeur School: "I go for a swim at my friends pool. I also play a little tennis."

Stefanie Norman, 9, Grade 4, Sacre Coeur School: "I drink a big glass of water or go swimming in my friends pond."

Jason Millar, 9, Grade 4, Sacre Coeur School: "I go swimming or I relax in the shade, and pour some water over me if it is really hot."

Trumpet & Friends FUNSTUF

"STARTING TOMORROW MY DEAR, ALL I WANT FOR MY MEALS IS A SMALL SALAD!" SAID GINGER'S DAD, AFTER FINISHING HIS THIRD HELPING. "I'VE DECIDED TO LOSE SOME WEIGHT." "THAT'S A GREAT IDEA." HIS WIFE REPLIED.

NEXT DAY, DAD GOT HIS SALAD. GINGER NOTICED THAT HE DIDN'T SEEM VERY EXCITED ABOUT IT. AND SHE HEARD A RUMBLE FROM HIS TUMMY.

Canadian Trivia

There are around 10,000 plains bison in private herds on the prairies, and in Ontario and Quebec. Parks Canada has a herd of 550 plains bison, mostly in Elk Island Park in Alberta.

Vancouver has three times the accidents per capita of Toronto and twice that of Montreal.

Canada's only officially designated historic site on foreign soil is Wolford Chapel in Devonshire near Exeter, England, which holds the family vault of John Graves Simcoe, the first lieutenant governor of Upper Canada. The chapel is located on the grounds of what used to be the Simcoe estate.
