Lifetime membership

As part of a special Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 awards ceremony Friday at the Legion Hall on Mill Street, Harry Brown (centre) was presented with a lifetime Branch 120 Legion

Cobblehill appreciation

Chill Out Dude

the dance raised approximately $16,000 for the following community groups: Georgetown Baseball Association, Georgetown Minor Hockey Association, Georgetown Chrysler Raiders Junior B hockey team, Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League, Ladies Flag Football League, Men's Flag Football League, Halton Hills Blue Fins Swim Club and the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce. Long service award

Erica Thompson (left) gives Jim Clark's hand a good shake after presenting him and Angela de Sylva with a long service award for 10 or more years of service to the Georgetown and District Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. Awards were presented at the branch's annual meeting held at St. George's Anglican Church. Pat Norris also received an award. (Herald photo)

Girl Guide cords

highest award for Guides aged 9-11 who have completed many additional badges and service awards beyond those required in the normal Guide Program. 87 Guides from Halton including 17 from Halton Hills received the award. (Herald photo)
