Markham Light Opera planning repeat performance

Owing to the great success and reception of Marham Light Opera's performance of Some Enchanted Evening last weekend at The John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown, the company is planning a return engagement on Thursday evening, June 27, 1991 at 8:00 p.m.

The delightful musical, which celebrates all the glorious shows of Rodgers and Hammerstein (Oklahoma!, The Sound of Music, South Pacific, etc. etc.) will be repeated once again at The John Elliott with the same stellar cast including Rosalee Peppard, Eddy Morassutti (who delighted audiences with his wonderful "Fred Astaire" and "Ugly Stepsister"), Barbara Boddy (our own "Mary Martin"), Robert Deutsch and award-winning concert pianist, Joe Cascone. New to this performance will be a marvelous

"Andrews Sisters" spoof.

Tickets can once again be purchased at Oxbow Books on Main Street in Georgetown (877-8861) or at the door, but hurry, there is limited seating! The show has been and will continue to charm audiences across Ontario for the duration of its province-wide tour this summer.

This exciting, full-scale musical presents some of the greatest music from some of the greatest stage and screen musicals of this century and celebrates the careers of two of the most talented and popular writers for Broadway and Hollywood.

From the innovative overture to the sparkling finale, audience members will reminisce along with all the famous Rodgers and Hammerstein shows... such shows as South Pacific, The Sound of Music, Oklahoma!, The King and I and Carousel for the big hits. In addition to the big hits, there will be many lesser-known Rodgers and Hammerstein shows represented as well, shows like Me and Juliet, Flower Drum Song, Pipe Dream and Allegro! as well as their big two-time film hit, State Fair and their television success Cinderella: all with fabulous scores. Not a bad track record to draw from!

Some Enchanted Evening boasts a musical score that includes some of the most beautiful song hits of this century. Hits such as "Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'," "The Surrey with the Fringe on Top," "Oklahoma," "I Can't Say No," "If I Loved You," "June is Bustin' Out All Over," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Bali Ha'i," "There is Nothin' Like a Dame," "I'm in Love With a Wonderful Guy," and of course "Some Enchanted Evening." Other hits include: "I Whistle a Happy Tune," "Shall We Dance?," "I Enjoy Being a Girl," "The Sound of Music," "Edelweiss," and "Climb Every Mountain" and many, many others - standard and obscure - Guarantee to have you leave the theatre humming.

When Rodgers and Hammerstein presented their first Broadway Musical together, Oklahoma!, they changed the course of musical theatre forever. They paved the way for modern theatre composers like Stephen Sondheim and Andrew Lloyd Webber. For the first time, the songs contributed to the story of a musical, and using this formula without compromising song quality, they continued to have hit after hit until the untimely death of Mr. Hammerstein in 1960.

Some Enchanted Evening celebrates all their hits and misses in a fun-filled evening of song, dance and laughter. Directed by acclaimed Canadian director, John Gordon, choreographed by nationally renowned dancer/choreographer Lesley Ansell and with celebrated concert pianist Joe Cascone at the piano, the distinguished cast includes Act-

Co Thea Award winner for her appearance as Maria in The Sound of Music, Rosalee Peppard, celebrated soprano Barbara Boddy who is also an award winner from The King and I, Honor Ridout, Eddy Morassutti and Jack Ridout; all experienced Rodgers and Hammerstein aficionados and performers. But, aside from the exceptional cast and celebrated production team, the real star of the evening will be the immortal songs and shows of Rodgers and Hammerstein.
