Women's Institute has busy two weeks

By BETTY SOJKA

Mrs. Grace McEnery gives us the following report on the Women's Institute's recent activities. Ballinafad W.I. had a very busy time, in the last two weeks. On May 30, Ballinafad Branch assisted by Bannockburn Branch co-hosted the 90th Annual meeting of the 11 branches of Halton District Women's Institute. There were 95 ladies present in Ballinafad Church.

Registration was at 2:30 with an interesting meeting of Convenor's reports on the work of these groups. There was also a satisfying financial report. The Provincial Board Member Mrs. Maisie Lasby of Dublin Branch, and her assistant Mrs. Doris Lindsay of Silverwood brought reports from the Provincial level.

The theme of this meeting was

"May I present change," and they informed us of many changes to meet the times that are being planned. After a delicious hot beef supper served by the Ballinafad Church Women the evening session began with solos by Alison Arsenault, church choir director. The election of officers for the next year and final business was carried out.

Provincial President Mrs. Peggy Knapp spoke on the meeting's theme.

On Wednesday, June 5 the Ballinafad Branch held their June meeting as is their custom in the form of an all day outing. This year we visited with a former member Miss Stella Cumming who has moved to a new home in Bramalea. We travelled by car, arriving about 11:00 am., and after admiring the new home, a short meeting was held. Ten members answered the Roll Call on "What are you doing to help the future generation?" Two members of the future generation were with us - Kelly and Colleen.

After the usual minutes, financial report and correspondence was dealt with the report of the Workshop at the Agricultural Museum for the purpose of planning for W.I. hostesses to help for the summer. There were about 60 members present. Plans were discussed for the August 10 quilt display. A discussion on a report of forty-five resolutions that the W.I. has been responsible for lobbying the government, and getting legislation results over the years. Such items were grading the poultry and meat over the counter, wrapping of bread, car insurance, "stop" signs, and many more things that makes one proud of W.I.

After the close of the meeting a delicious potluck lunch was served. The afternoon was spent in the beautiful greenhouses at Chinguacousy Park, and also a visit to Sara Lee Bakeries. There will be no meeting in July or August.

The Jim Dandies came up with another win last week. The ladies played a good strong game equal in hitting, and defensive.
