

Kinsmen Softball League produces excellent results

By DEE DEE HAYNES
Herald Special

The players have been competing in Kinsmen Girls Softball for three weeks now, with many excellent scores resulting.

JUNIORS

On May 23, Young's Pharmacy slipped past Delrex Smoke Shop, 30-25. Smashing in the homeruns for the game were Lynn Hayes for Young's and Becky Coffin (3), Andrew Pollock (2), Mandy Forbes, Robin Snelling, and Danielle Van Dyke for the Smoke Shop. Game stars were both teams who played excellently for their first game of the season.

In the other game occurring, Dunlop Insurance out hit Nikki's Pools 34-31. Bagtrippers were hit in by Marie White (2), Ashley McMahon (2), Jacklyn Neill, and Arden McLean all of Dunlop. Again both teams played so well for their first game they were named the game stars.

May 30 saw two very close games again from the junior competitors. Delrex Smoke Shop narrowly escaped the grasp of Dunlop Insurance, 32-28.

Homerun hitters and game stars for Delrex Smoke Shop were Mandy Forbes (3), Heather Pollock and Andrew Pollock. Claiming the game star honours for Dunlop was Candice Moncton.

The same week, Nikki's Pools came up three runs short as Standard Products finished on top, 32-29. Knocking in the homers for Standard were Laura Willis (3), and Katherine Leonard. Willis and Leonard also claimed the game stars for Standard, while Adrienne Lambert and Elena McLeod were the stars for Nikki's.

Rounding out the first three weeks play on June 6 saw Nikki's Pools and Standard Products on top of their competition. Nikki's walked over Young's Pharmacy 34-27. Game stars were Ashley McMahon with three homers for Nikki's and Kati Moore for Young's.

Standard Products slipped past Dunlop Insurance by three runs, resulting in a 30-27 score. Game stars were the Dunlop team and team member Angela Cornell, and Standard's home run hitters, Carley Chrichton, Jodi Hutzal, Chantelle Roberts and Kathryn Leonard.

The executive of the Kinsmen Girls Softball League would like to welcome our Junior Coaches to a new season and wish them the best of luck in the coming season. Our coaches for the 1991 season are: Monique Campbell (Dunlop Insurance), Ron Lefebvre (Nikki's Pools), Laurie Tutt (Young's Pharmacy), Susie Williams (Standard Products), and Monica Mastalerz (Delrex Smoke Shop).

INTERMEDIATE

Action and excitement are again abundant in our Intermediate division as the players and coaches are preparing for an eventful season.

Beginning the season in winning style were Pictures and Presents and the Optimists. Pictures and Presents walked away with the first victory of the season as they clobbered Rapid Print 25-3. Knocking in home runs and claiming game star honours were Jennifer Armstrong for Pictures and Presents and Tara Nolan for Rapid Print.

Also on May 23, Optimists slipped past Elks Lodge, 20-16. Game stars for this match-up were Andrea Borg of Elks and Jenny Carter of the Optimists.

May 30 saw two more unequal matchups. Elk's Lodge regained their confidence as they almost doubled their opponents, Dairy Queen, 32-17. Hitting in homers for Elks were Deanna Moore (2), and Teri Barber. Game stars were Moore and Robin Ransom for Dairy Queen.

In the evening's other bout, Optimists outplayed Halton Rapid Print 24-11. Slamming in homeruns were Amy French (2), and Becky Armstrong both of the Optimists. Game stars were Halton Rapid Print's Heather Boyd and the Optimists Jenny Charters.

On June 6, there were two closer games and match ups that saw Dairy Queen and Elks Lodge victorious. Dairy Queen narrowly escaped Optimist Club 19-12. Hitting in the game's sole homerun was Karen Hannah of the Optimists. Game stars were Manniah and Lisa White of Dairy Queen.

In the Elks Lodge-Pictures and Presents match up, Pictures came up short as they lost 17-7. Home runs were bashed in by Sheri Buker (2) and Krista Peacock, both of Pictures and Presents. Game stars were Deanna Moore of Elks and Peacock of Pictures and Presents.

The executive would also like to welcome our Intermediate coaches and wish them the best of luck for the coming season. Our Intermediate coaches are: Tye Tutt (Dairy Queen), Penny Butterworth and Molly Moore (Elks Lodge), Michelle Nolan (Halton Rapid Print), Gerry Osborne (Optimist), and Don Peacock (Pictures and Presents).

SENIORS

The senior division is quickly filling up and the league would like to welcome any girls who are interested in signing up for a season of house league softball to join on Tuesday evenings at the Georgetown Faigrounds.

Black Widows win and lose Powderpuff matches

MAY 29

Black Widows 8, She Devils 2
Widows had a curse on the Devils right from the start with Debbie Thatham's triple, Wendy Farrow-Reed's double and two RBI's each for Denise Brownlee, Deborah Gilmore and Melanie Hewson, good pitching from Stacey Hamilton and Debbie Thatham and an excellent double play by Andie Perryman.

Devils just couldn't pitch their forks even though Jeanne Brookes smashed out a triple. Elizabeth Doell hit a double and Kim Kirk along with Teri Wenham were stealing bases the Widows managed to put out the flame.

though Laura Crazier hit a triple and RBI's were sent in by Brenda Bennett, Laura Crazier and Wendy Watson. Peelers sent them travelling again.

MAY 31

Outlaws 29, Black Widows 15
We didn't know the bats were loaded cried Widows as Outlaws broke loose with a huge lead. Leading the gang, was Sharon Zmija with a triple, following on her heels was Kathy Dawson and Debbie Davies, both with two doubles.

Also, Dawn Broadbent, Penny Cassista, Lynda Chadwick, Betty Fendley, Bev Maybury each shot off a double, with Pat Herrington and Jaye Shipley attacking defensively and Susie Williams stealing bases.

Widows shows effort with doubles by Tammy Lockwood and Yvonne Readman along with double plays by Robin Richardson and Janie Smith but the trail was clouded in dust.

She Devils 8, Champagne on Ice 3
Devils popped the cork after their first victory as champagne bubbled over the brim with doubles by Elizabeth Doell, Kim Kirk and Colleen Costello with sparkling pitchers on the mound - Doreen Dobbins and Chris Styles and great defence by Elizabeth Doell and Ruby Gingras gave Devils a good reason to celebrate.

While the girls on ice had a good pitching team made up with Paulette Friolet and Dawn Hills, with 3 doubles knocked out by Lori Taylor and one double each for Ellen McGowan, Wendy's Hannon, Lois Osborne and Kay King, Devils made sure the fizz was in their cups tonight.

Travelling Blueberries 15,
Thunder Buns 8

The sun shone for the berries and sent the storm on its way with triples by Brenda Bennett and Sharon Sargent, doubles by Elaine Moreland, also a triple and RBI's from Wendy Watson and Lauri Crazier, the Blueberries blossomed.

Thunder Buns tried to knock the blossoms from their stems with a double hit by Jennie David, good base running by Peggy Gourlay and powerful pitching by Carol Spiteri couldn't shake them loose.
