Chamber bids farewell to pillar of community

Although local businessman Murray Lawton is packing his bags to journey to St. Catharines, his accomplishments in Georgetown will mean the Lawton name will be remembered for a long time to come.

Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce hosted a farewell luncheon for Mr. Lawton Wednesday at North Halton Golf and Country Club to recognize the contribution he has made to the community over the years.

Mr. Lawton was the owner of Canadian Tire in Georgetown. He is moving to St. Catharines to take over that city's Canadian Tire store.

Chamber members learned how Mr. Lawton was instrumental in starting up the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce. It was also Mr. Lawton who had the vision and determination to subsequently bring the Georgetown and Acton Chamber of Commerce's together to form the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Lawton served as the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce's first president.

Mr. Lawton's work with the business community was recognized in 1984 when he received the local Business Person of the Year Award.
