Good-natured fun

Operation '91

Billed as adult entertainment, the upcoming Hospital Benefit Show promises theatre-goers a wealth of humor, music and fun.

"Operation 91", as it's called, is reminiscent of "Operation 62" which was staged almost 30 years ago to raise funds for the new Hospital. This year's production includes a cast of Georgetown's finest entertainers - all adding their own brand of talent to a unique, two-hour variety show. With support from many members of Georgetown Little Theatre, Globe Productions, the Choral Society and many local citizens, it promises to be an event not to be missed.

Operation 91 is dedicated to the administrators, medical and support staff of the Hospital in appreciation of their service to the community. All proceeds from the benefit shows will go to the Hospital Foundation.

As Dorothy Hunt, producer and member of the Hospital's 30th Anniversary Committee says, "It's very gratifying to see such a high level of support and commitment from so many people in our community - each of whom is volunteering their time and talents to this worthwhile cause."

Two performances will be held Friday and Saturday at the John Elliott Theatre, in Georgetown. The doors open at 7:30 p.m. and curtain time is 8:00 p.m.

Tickets are only $12.50 and are available from these locations:

- Hallmark Greetings and Gifts, 258 Guelph St., Georgetown

- Young's Pharmacy, 76 Main Street, Georgetown

- Video Ranch (Moore Park Plaza)

- Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Gift Shop
